praise for somewhere i have never traveled th is fourth volume of robert ayres carters autobiography takes the reader back to the 1970s from the outside carters life seems conventional he was an executive in the world of publishing and advertising commuting between long island and manhattan setting this work apart from the ordinariness of that sort of life is the clarity of his unflinching revelation of his private affairs emotions and thoughts his struggles to become a writer of novels his self doubts and his emotional and physical involvement with many women and the collapse of two marriages are all described vividly with the skill of the accomplished novelist perhaps most poignant of all are his descriptions of his sense of loss from his separation from his two sons james scanlon professor emeritus of history randolph macon college three acclaimed novels plus collected short fiction by the new york times bestselling author of rich man poor man the young lions irwin shaw s new york times bestselling debut is widely considered one of the four great world war ii novels along with from here to eternity the naked and the dead and the caine mutiny ambitious in its scope and robust in its prose this masterpiece is also deeply humanistic presenting the reality of war as seen through the eyes of three ordinary soldiers a nazi sergeant a jewish american infantryman and an idealistic urbanite from new york city theboston globe bread upon the waters no good deed goes unpunished the strands are a happy family though not without their financial struggles when their daughter helps a mugging victim by bringing him home he turns out to be a wall street lawyer whose gratitude is as boundless as his bank account but with each successive reward the strand family moves farther away from the wealth of happiness they already possessed short stories five decades shaw s prolific output of short stories appeared regularly in the pages of the new yorker and esquire for over half a century these sixty three stories include such iconic works as the eighty yard run and the girls in their summer dresses the troubled air five employees of clement archer s popular radio show are accused communists he will have to fire them to keep his show on the air but it's not a simple choice whatever archer decides he won't be able to keep his hands clean in Shaw's provocative classic about courage and morality at the height of McCarthyism

Irwin Shaw

bestselling author Irwin Shaw's lighthearted travelogue follows his family's vacation sailing from St. Tropez to Venice in the 1960s as a boy Irwin Shaw stared out across Brooklyn's Sheepshead Bay and dreamed of owning a boat and sailing the oceans wide decades later he determined that chartering a yacht was better than having no boat at all with his wife and son Shaw then set out to mosey about the Mediterranean guided by a Scottish captain his wife and daughter and a Greek cabin boy from St. Tropez to Naples and across the Adriatic to Dubrovnik and up to Venice it was the trip of a lifetime its only fault being that eventually it would have to end written in 1964 this travel memoir is a portrait of a bygone age when the sun-soaked Mediterranean was still emerging from the shadow of World War II and vacation truly meant detaching oneself from the world featuring cameos by legendary authors such as Françoise Sagan and James Jones this endearing memoir is the next best thing to a Mediterranean cruise
