addressing crucial questions of language identity and power it examines the debates over language among the elite of this region during a period of significant social and political change in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries language debates closely reflect power relations among different sections of society such as those delineated by nation ethnicity region religion caste class and gender they are intimately linked with the process in which individuals and groups of people try to define and project themselves in response to changing political economic and social environments based on rich historical sources including official records periodicals literary texts memoirs and private papers this book vividly shows the impact that colonialism nationalism and the process of nation building had on the ideas of language among different groups as well as how various ideas of language competed and negotiated with each other language identity and power in modern india gujarat c 1850 1960 will be of particular interest to students and scholars working on south asian history and to those interested in issues of language society and politics in different parts of the modern world the public sphere from outside the west brings together established and emerging new voices from philosophy literature anthropology history migration studies and information technology to address the present reality of the public sphere in the age where everyone is in the public and everything is visible this volume creates a delay in which the internet of things mass surveillance and social media are asked what is not the public the essays bring to attention the formation of geo politically and historically distinct public spheres from south africa india america and europe such formations are found not only in the postcolonial histories of print photography cinema and caricature but also those underway in the digital era such as the arab spring occupy movements and anonymous through critical engagement with philosophers such as kant heidegger benjamin habermas and arendt the determining concepts of the public sphere privacy secrecy reason the people are shown to be undergoing epistemological and practical ruptures demonstrating the necessity of these considerations to understand the world public that is rapidly transforming this concept in radical ways through
