contemporary reception referencing reviews in the periodical press personal journals letters autobiographies marginalia and bibliographical evidence relating to the production distribution and reception of travel literature jarvis focuses especially on the ideas and perceptions of north america expressed by individuals who never visited the subcontinent among the issues jarvis explores are what the british reception of north american travel narratives says about the ways in which the united states was imagined in the romantic period how poets such as samuel taylor coleridge felicia hemans robert southey and william wordsworth all voracious travel readers incorporated their readings of travel books into their works and the ways in which the reception of north american travel class or professional status affected the way travel literature was read of equally crucial importance he discusses the reception of travel literature on canada and the arctic as distinct from that on
