a penetrating examination of the history and future of the australian greens the re election of a coalition government after a lost decade of policy backflips and leadership volatility has redrawn the political landscape with a record quarter of voters abandoning the major parties at the last election what lies ahead for the greens the third force in australian politics in a nation divided over global warming rising inequality and national security can they agitate for forward thinking policy or will a refusal to compromise prove a stumbling block inside the greens investigates the personalities policies and turning points that have formed the party from the fight to save lake pedder to the stop adani convoy from heckling george w bush to the fateful decision to vote down the carbon tax from party of protest to the balance of power in minority governments at state and federal level it also exposes the greens as they are today a divided organisation reckoning with structural and strategic challenges beset by factional showdowns and suggestions of internal sabotage can the party hang together has it strayed too far from grassroots activism can the greens do politics differently and still succeed journalist paddy manning draws on previously unrevealed archival material and interviews with party friends foes and key figures including bob brown christine milne lee rhiannon adam bandt and richard di natale to weave a compulsively readable account of where the greens are heading and what that means for australia a monumental effort inside the greens manages to be not just a fine resource on a single party but of the times that produced them crikey
