For a champion of the poor Mao Zedong was born to a wealthy aristocratic family in Shaoshan Hunan China. As an adolescent he once had to defend his father's farm from starving peasants during a famine who wished to seize his father's land and steal his grain. This same Mao would later promote a policy of land reform that would give those peasants the green light to violently overthrow the rich land owners all over the Chinese countryside. Inside you will read about where revolution was made. Mao comes into his own. Mao the pragmatist from Nanking to Pearl Harbor consolidating power. Mao's stranglehold. Mao loses face and much more. Mao Zedong was a Marxist revolutionary wishing to overthrow regimes he viewed as imperialist and yet Mao often referred to as the Red Emperor behaved much like totalitarian emperors of China's medieval past. Mao was a man of intriguing contradiction. This book takes the time to explore them all.
