are supposed to be a time of joy and to celebrate with your family that is if you have a family my name is julie and if you met me you wouldn t know the pain i feel each and every day i hide it well hiding is something i am very good at every day i go through the motions of work and then go home staying busy is the key if i stay busy i don t have time to reflect on what i have lost of course i am now so busy that i don t have time for such things as hanging out with friends dating or falling in love that suits me just fine if i don t fall in love then i don t have to worry about losing them one day life can change very quickly and my life

started changing the day i met a homeless man named ben there is something about ben that draws me to him at first it was just my desire to help him but as our friendship grows i find my heart opening up again they say christmas is a magical time a time for miracles is it possible that falling in love with ben is my miracle this work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and
