to publish this classic book as part of our extensive classic literature collection this book is a reproduction of an important historical work unlike some other reproductions of classic texts we have not used ocr optical character recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos also in books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy we use state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works miss de barral leads a sheltered life while her father is prosperous then must rely on the generosity of others who resent her or have agendas for her before she escapes by marrying one captain anthony much of the book involves the musing of the various narrators over what she and the captain expected from this union and
