Putting Me Back Together 2023-05-03

i wrote this book not as a self help book i am not a therapist but as a testimony i went through things and did things that i was ashamed of i carried so much guilt for so long till i just wanted to die i felt like trash for a long time i thought men and alcohol would chase away the boogiemans but instead they became the boogiemans that would take years of crying on my knees at the altar to get rid of the way i felt about myself i lost so much because of what happened to me i dealt with many years of fear of everything and it took me a long time to figure out why i do things a certain way and feel a certain way and why i have missed out on so much in my life and writing this book has been an eye opener for me i hesitated for a long time with putting certain things in my book i was always afraid of what people would think of me or what would be said on my job not anymore see i must be obedient to the one who kept me alive and gave his life for me in the end my heavenly father is who i answer to if i help just one person it was all worth it i do believe many more will be helped though the one thing i can be certain of is that if you are going through anything god has your back and you must be willing to trust him you can go boldly to the throne talk to him as you would a friend he already knows your pain and deepest secrets as i grow in my walk with god i am learning a new level of love for him he is awesome may god keep you and heal you and make you whole again in his name i pray amen arising from mistakes many but by no means all of the complaints received could have been resolved much sooner and by dwp themselves if the complaint handling had been more customer focused this report contains an anonymised digest of selected cases highlighting poor information delays poor record keeping poor communication local resolution of complains should be the most efficient way to secure an appropriate outcome it is hoped the report will encourage dwp to seek ways to improve the service they provide to citizens
