essay from the year 2023 in the subject film science grade a university of heidelberg heidelberg course film studies language english abstract the director of inception christopher nolan engages the audience in a rollercoaster of a journey by skilfully creating tension and distorting the thin lines between facts and creation of the mind this masterpiece adeptly tests people s comprehension of reality by exploring ideas of how powerful dreams are and how fragile perception can be this book addresses the analysis of musical sounds from the viewpoint of someone at the intersection between physicists engineers piano technicians and musicians the study is structured into three parts the reader is introduced to a variety of waves and a variety of ways of presenting visualizing and analyzing them in the first part a tutorial on the tools used throughout the book accompanies this introduction the mathematics behind the tools is left to the appendices part two provides a graphical survey of the classical areas of acoustics that pertain to musical instruments vibrating strings bars membranes and plates part three is devoted almost exclusively to the piano several two and three dimensional graphical tools are introduced to study various characteristics of pianos individual notes and interactions among them the missing fundamental inharmonicity tuning visualization the different distribution of harmonic power for the various zones of the piano keyboard and potential uses for quality control these techniques are also briefly applied to other musical instruments studied in earlier parts of the book for physicists and engineers there are appendices to cover the mathematics lurking beneath the numerous graphs and a brief introduction to matlab which was used to generate these graphs a website accompanying the book sites google com site analysisofsoundsandvibrations contains matlab scripts mp3 files of sounds references to youtube videos and up to date results of recent studies seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject communications mass media grade 94 communication university of china institute of communication studies course theories of communication language english abstract the purpose of this paper is to examine and criticize the representation of female body image by mass media for decades the bodies of women have been tailored to highlight products and services by advertisers and owners of the media as a means of generating capital gains this tailoring has led to what many have come to accept as the ideal image of beauty that every woman should endeavor to achieve this paper continues the discussion on a topic that is widely and frequently discussed the theoretical framework that this paper employs is based on one of the most applauded theory in communication studies the political economy of communication and media theory which was first coined by dallas william smythe this theory is pertinent to understand the presence of the commercial forces behind creating and maintaining this ideal body image particularly by advertisers in mass media the form of mass media that this paper concentrates on is women s magazine with specific focus on advertisements regarding beauty and cosmetic products services additionally case studies in the us and china are used to depict the influence mass media representation of female body image on women graeme ritchie advocates a cognitive science approach to humour research aiming for higher levels of detail and formality than has been customary in humour research and from the year 2016 in the subject didactics for the subject english literature works grade 1 1 university of göttingen language english abstract in the famous title quote from richard iii william shakespeare has his protagonist disregard the concept of conscience as a mere word an invention of no further consequence to a brave person meanwhile hamlet complains that conscience does make cowards of us all and thereby infers a strong significance of conscience to mankind these popular though seemingly contradictory statements raise the question just what exact understanding of said moral concept shakespeare wanted to relay to his audience what was conscience to him his audience and his contemporary writers was conscience seen as but a word a cowardly excuse for inaction or as an innate concept dwelling in every man what were the underlying principles of his set of moral values both the author and his contemporaries had an interest towards both the specific moral phenomenon of conscience and the intricacies of the human persona and its inner moral values in the two plays at hand richard iii and hamlet conscience is displayed as an innate concept in their beliefs towards this concept heroes and villains do not contradict but complement each other all relevant scenes from the two plays taken together exhibit a comprehensive image of the discourse of conscience in the elizabethan age it ranges from personified character and externality to an inner contemplation with god and man s own soul from an exhilarating righteous feeling to purgatory like torment on earth it shows a broad understanding of the term much more extensive than our modern perception of it which has narrowed down to the single meaning of discernment between good and evil nevertheless conscience stands in a long tradition of philosophical debates and shakespeare adds his own touch to it with richard iii and hamlet leaving modern eyes with a better appreciation of concept of conscience this
