president in 2020 having been a journalist for 40 years covering presidents and other international leaders congress and national and international business i have found that to overcome a plethora of conflicting information and disinformation the simplest answer in understanding leaders is often the best i have studied all 45 u s presidents and have found that the simplest way to determine why they got elected and why they were successful less successful or not very successful at all is to determine if they were a daddy s boy or a mama s boy from their birth on i also identify in the book whether our presidents were balanced atypical conflicted or unbalanced our greatest presidents were balanced in other words if they were at birth mama s boys they learned to acquire the attributes of the other parent to balance them abraham lincoln was a mama s boy who married at daddy s girl mary todd who taught him to man up i identify president trump as an atypical daddy s boy though his father loved him and he loved his father donald has an inordinate need to be independent of a dominant father to be his own man too simplistic of course many other factors are involved but i am talking about a simplistic rule of thumb a poker tell a major determining factor in predicting who can get elected in terms of their ability to campaign and attract a following their personality and character how they might make decisions their policy inclinations their management style in terms of being able to delegate or not if they have administrative capability and what is their worldview basher s us presidents shows you the nation s leaders as you ve never seen them before every president from george washington to the winner of the 2016 election has an individual entry and speaks directly to the reader often humorous these lively and enlightening articles bring history to life meet james monroe known as the last cocked hat because he pranced around in an outdated wig hat and breeches learn more about uncle jumbo better known as grover cleveland the only president to serve two non consecutive terms find out how ronald reagan helped end the cold war quirky facts add interest did you know that john quincy adams had a pet alligator that teddy roosevelt and his whole family could walk on stilts or that lyndon b johnson had worked as an elevator operator read this book and you ll soon be on personal terms with every single us head honcho to date published in a variety of formats
