The Bucket and The Deep Blue Sea this is a contemporary fantasy tale about three good friends and their desire to do something extraordinary sprig the dormouse and her best friend whisker or whisk the rat team up with the self important jackdaw scam to embark on a perilous adventure they will turn an old bucket into a sailing boat navigate the river whip and sail the sea in a bucket boat i got the idea to write this book due to my little boy brad in lockdown i took him to have an operation to have his tonsils and adenoids removed this resulted in him being given a mixture of fentanyl and morphine the knock on effect of this was some peculiar strangeness primarily an unprompted song about something to do with going to sea on a bucket he sang this song for reasons unknown even to him over the next couple of days repeatedly it got to the point that i could only reasonably assume that the operation had turned him into a permanent oddball stuck in an endless loop forever parroting this ridiculous but admittedly catchy nonsensical song for the rest of his days fortunately he somehow shook off this curse and went somewhat back to normal the song was stuck in my head though this is what gave me the idea to write this little story about some small creatures who go to sea on a bucket thanks brad aged 4 for your excellent front cover illustration
