expanding on the editors award winning article evolving to a new dominant logic for marketing this book presents a challenging new paradigm for the marketing discipline this new paradigm is service oriented customer oriented relationship focused and knowledge based and places marketing once viewed as a support function central to overall business strategy service dominant logic defines service as the application of competencies for the benefit of another entity and sees mutual service provision rather than the exchange of goods as the proper subject of marketing it moves the orientation of marketing from a market to philosophy where customers are promoted to targeted and captured to a market with philosophy where the customer and supply chain partners are collaborators in the entire marketing process the editors elaborate on this model through an historical analysis clarification and extension of service dominant logic and distinguished marketing thinkers then provide further insight and commentary the result is a more comprehensive and inclusive marketing theory that will challenge both current thinking and marketing practice services to older people with mental health problems have gone through radical change in recent years legislation has had a profound effect by dictating how care to older people is delivered both within hospital and within the community the recent government agenda emphasizes cost effectiveness value for money and accountability this too is an important driving force in re evaluating the service although not everyone would agree with many of the proposed strategies and there are clearly different views as to the appropriateness of many of the services one thing is certain however the move towards interdisciplinary working is here to stay not all change has been led by legislation and many innovations have been founded in the day to day practices in the care of older people with mental health problems a service of course does not become integrated merely by imposing joint working on a number of professionally based disciplines and in many ways this may not be desirable at its worst it produces duplication where people from different background are all doing the same job this is not the intention of joint working instead it should attempt to improve the quality of service by a rich mix of skills and experience from a number of related disciplines
