violence in tragedies written for the french stage during the sixteenth century and explores its connection with issues such as politics religion gender and militantism to place the plays within their historical cultural and theatrical contexts this book offers a feminist critique of the so called crisis of exemplarity in late renaissance texts by comparing and contrasting examples proposed to female readers in two collections of sixteenth century french short stories pierre boistuau s histoires tragiques and marguerite de navarre s heptameron the author proposes that female exemplarity has its own poetics and cannot be considered simply as identical or symmetrical to male exemplarity what emerges in the course of the study is an understanding of the different ways in which exemplarity enters the life of the female reader through history truth invention memory and strangeness

this book offers a feminist critique of the so called crisis of exemplarity in late renaissance texts by comparing and contrasting examples proposed to female readers in two collections of sixteenth century french short stories pierre boaistuau s histoires tragiques and marguerite de navarre s heptameron the author proposes that female exemplarity has its own poetics and cannot be considered simply as identical or symmetrical to male exemplarity what emerges in the course of the study is an understanding of the different ways in which exemplarity enters the life of the female reader through history truth invention memory and strangeness
