lost cities for ten years that the cities exist i know a book of great power should be read by everyone daily telegraph this updating supplement brings the main work up to date and incorporates substantive developments since publication of the book it is an essential purchase for all who already own the main work and maintains its currency this collection of essays contains in depth analyses of eighteen landmark cases in private international law from penn v lord baltimore in 1750 to brownlie v fs cairo Nile Plaza LLC in 2021 the contributors are experts drawn from academia and practice as well as from the bench case law has been a central driver in the legal development of the english conflict of laws judge made law does not just supply a source of law itself but also acts as the crucible in which other sources of law legislation international treaty european regulation and ideas generated by jurists such as joseph story and albert venn dicey have been tested and applied this book sheds new light on the past and future evolution of private international law by focusing on the landmark cases which have fundamentally shaped the way that we think about this subject the focus is on the english common law but landmarks in scotland australia and canada are covered as well many of them concern disputes between commercial parties others deal with issues such as marriage and domicile and some arise from controversies in political constitutional and international affairs the landmark cases tackled in this collection address significant issues in civil jurisdiction governing law foreign judgments and public policy the essays place those landmarks in their historical context explain their contemporary importance and consider their future relevance the rome ii regulation on the law applicable to non contractual obligations introduces a single choice of law regime for tort and other non contractual obligations the regulation has huge implications for international litigation relating to traffic accidents product liability environmental damage and infringement of intellectual property rights for example this book contains analysis of the regulation by 15 experts from europe and north america it examines the core concepts and assesses the likely impact of the regulation on claims for tort and unjust enrichment it is an indispensable guide to the regulation for legal practitioners academics and students freight forwarding and multimodal transport contracts 2nd edition is a comprehensive guide to the law in relation to contract forms and terms created by operators trade associations or international bodies such as the un and used as a basis for trading conditions by freight forwarders logistics suppliers combined or multimodal transport operators and container operators this second edition examines the latest editions of contract forms and terms both where their object is the supply or procurement of multimodal carriage as well as where they are directed to the use of combined transport equipment ie containers swap bodies of particular prominence will be a detailed examination of the latest versions of conditions used by the principal uk forwarding logistics intermodal and container operators such as the british international freight association bifa conditions 2005a and the current freightliner conditions as well as updates on many of the conditions in use and legal developments relevant to them eg road haulage association conditions 2009 maersk conditions of carriage tt club conditions the new s elp pocket commentaries are reduced to essential information on current legal developments with these short and handy books you can easily update your knowledge the first volume deals with the new rome ii regulation on the law applicable to non contractual obligations which became effective on 11 1 2009 comprehensive and accessible analysis of the rules of the rome ii regulation on the private international law of non contractual obligations coverage of practical issues such as international product liability liability for environmental damage or non contractual liability for unfair competition written by a team of internationally orientated scholars the application of private international law to electronic consumer contracts raises new complex and controversial questions it is new because consumer protection was not a private international law concern until very recently and e commerce only became an important commercial activity within the last ten years e consumer contracts generate original questions which have not been considered under traditional private international law theories it is complex because it has to deal both with difficulties raised by consumer contracts and the challenges of e commerce reasonable resolutions to consumer contracts may prove inappropriate in e commerce while effective approaches to resolving private international law problems in e commerce may be improper for consumer contracts it is controversial because it concerns the conflicting interests of consumers and businesses in a fast moving commercial environment a fair balance is therefore hard to achieve without proper solutions provided by private international law consumers will not be confident about purchasing online and businesses will face unreasonable risk and participation costs in e commerce updated and properly designed private international law rules are essential to the further development of e commerce this book aims to provide an answer to the urgent requirement for legal certainty security and justice in e consumer contracts it is primarily concerned with existing approaches to jurisdiction and choice of law issues in e consumer contracts in the european community and england but some typical approaches in other jurisdictions are also examined based on the analysis and the comparative study of the existing law the book seeks to provide a proposal as to what the law should be in order to provide certainty to both parties to provide reasonable protection to consumers and to promote the development of e commerce this carefully structured practice orientated textbook provides everything the law student needs to know about international commercial litigation the strong comparative component provides a thought provoking international perspective while at the same time allowing readers to gain unique insights into litigation in english courts three important themes of the book analyse how the international element may call into question the power of the court to hear the case whether it should exercise this power whether foreign law applies and whether the court should take into account any foreign judgement hartley provides the reader with extracts from leading cases and relevant legislation together with an extensive reference library of further reading for those who wish to explore the topic in more detail making this a valuable single source textbook the title will benefit from a companion website setting out all relevant case law developments for the students this fully updated and comprehensive 3rd edition of the law of ship mortgages provides readers with a practical commercially based and definitive guide to the english law of ship mortgages the authors being seasoned practitioners bring their extensive experience to bear on a number of difficult and developing areas of the law such as mortgagees duties liability to charterers the conflict of laws work outs restructurings and cross border insolvency the 3rd edition includes new chapters on pre delivery security security over shares and on the increasingly important topic of ship leasing as a method of finance it is written against the background of and has regard to ever increasing sanctions affecting shipping and ship finance as well as the continued regulatory and industry driven push towards reduction of emissions imo 2020 and imo 2050 written primarily with practitioners in mind the law of ship mortgages will continue to be extremely useful to legal professionals especially in common law jurisdictions involved in international ship finance or ship mortgage enforcement it will also be a valuable resource for postgraduate students and academics especially those with an interest in shipping law or the law of personal property more generally principles of insolvency law is widely regarded as the text on insolvency law professor sir roy goode s reputation as the doyen of commercial law has established a unique position for the work as a leading authority in the field the book provides a clear and concise treatment of the general philosophical principles underpinning insolvency law it works as an introduction to this complex area and as such it has a broad market ranging from students and newly qualified practitioners to barristers in court this book offers a global solution for determining the law applicable to a claim to clawback an inter vivos gift from a third party within the context of a succession the book aims to identify an appropriate and applicable legal framework which supports legal certainty for cross border estate planning and protects the legitimate expectations of the relevant parties this is an area of private international law that has yet to be handled satisfactorily as can be seen by the inadequate treatment of clawback from third parties in the 1989 hague convention on the law applicable to succession to the estates of deceased persons and the 2012 eu succession regulation explorations of the english baptist reception of the evangelical revival often and rightfully focus on the work of the spirit prayer bible study preaching and mission while other key means are often overlooked useful learning examines the period from c 1689 to c 1825 and combines history in the form of the stories of baptist pastors their churches and various societies and theology as found in sermons pamphlets personal confessions of faith constitutions covenants and theological treatises in the process it identifies four equally important means of grace the first was the theological renewal that saw moderate calvinism answer the modern question develop into evangelical calvinism and revive the denomination second were close groups of ministers whose friendship mutual support and close theological collaboration culminated in the formation of the baptist missionary society and local itinerant mission work across much of britain third was their commitment to reviving stagnating associations or founding new ones convinced of the vital importance of the corporate christian life and witness for the support and strengthening of the local churches and furthering the spread of the gospel to all people finally was the conviction of the churches and their pastors that those with gifts for preaching and ministry should be theologically educated at first local ministers taught students in their homes and then at the bristol academy in the early nineteenth century a further three baptist academies were founded at horton abergavenny and stepney and these were soon followed by colleges in america india and jamaica examines a complex global legal problem to demonstrate a compelling method for comparative legal cultural and social understanding the immunity or exemption enjoyed by states from legal proceedings before foreign national courts is a crucial area of international law on the basis of an exhaustive analysis of judicial decisions international treaties national legislation government statements deliberations in international organisations as well as scholarly opinion xiaodong yang traces the historical development of the relevant doctrine and practice critically analyses the rationale for restrictive immunity and closely inspects such important exceptions to immunity as commercial transactions contracts of employment tortious liability separate entities the enforcement of judgments waiver of immunity and the interplay between state immunity and human rights the book draws a full picture of the law of state immunity as it currently stands and endeavours to provide useful information and guidance for practitioners academics and students alike these essays trace the changing relationship between scotland and england following the unifying reign of queen victoria through the debates over devolution and into a future where the union will be under continuing pressure to evolve historians social scientists and lawyers investigate the personal social financial and constitutional tensions between the scots and the english both before and after devolution and ask if scots and english have been driven apart or brought more closely together by this reconstruction of the union building on its companion anglo scottish relations from 1603 to 1900 0 19 726330 5 this volume provides wideranging insights into what some may regard as unfinished business incorporating hcp 564 i session 2006 07 the new edition has been substantially updated to offer an up to date and authoritative account of the law in this rapidly changing field as well as general updating the chapter on torts has been completely rewritten and the growing importance of the law of restitution has led to the inclusion of a new separate chapter on the private international law aspects of this significant field of the law of obligations the major developments in the law on jurisdiction and the recognition of foreign judgements have also been fully discussed the parish church has not only played a significant part in the life of leeds it captures within it the history of the great events and people who together have shaped that city through the centuries hundreds of monuments and memorials dating from the middle ages to the present day encrust its walls and floors telling as they do the part leeds people have played in that story here we see memorials to members of the leeds volunteers formed to offset napoleon s threatened invasion and to the men from the city who fought in the crimea in south africa and in two world wars here also we find tributes to hundreds of local men women and children who lived out their lives in the town some now forgotten others nationally famous like richard oastler the factory king now for the first time those memorials have been captured in margaret pullan s pioneering publication the product of years of devoted research the range of information offered includes records of births marriages and deaths full inscriptions background histories explaining why the deceased were buried in the parish church and the artistic merits of their tombs architectural ecclesiastical and local historians will find this an invaluable contribution in their respective fields of work whilst the general public will find it gives a fascinating view of the people of leeds who lived through the years as the old town grew into a major city the regional novel in britain and ireland 1800 1990 will be of interest to literary and social historians as well as cultural critics this text provides discussion of the principle of freedom of establishment and focuses on the key issue of determining where a corporation has its seat for legal purposes
