affirm that the old testament bears witness to christ how the old testament writers did this is a matter of extensive debate furthermore christian biblical scholars also debate the degree to which old testament is the first book to bring together in conversation the major views on how the old testament points to christ contributors and views include the first testament priority view john goldingay the christotelic view tremper longman iii the redemptive historical christocentric view jason derouchie the reception centered intertextual view havilah dharamraj the premodern view craig pervert each other just as in his novels french contaminates english and fiction perverts reality his work is centered on the details of his survival enacting a perpetual return to the closet as previous studies have demonstrated by examining beckettian and by extension joycean intertextuality in the novels of raymond federman this study traces the contours of a second closet synoptic consideration of the most recent empirical evidence concerning the kinds and amounts of verbal agreement that can be produced among independent performances of oral traditions this book originated in the donatio universitatis carolinae award and research support that professor petr pokorný received in 2017 it was envisioned designed and originally conducted as a project exploring the biblical roots of christian culture experts in various theological and philosophical disciplines both from the czech republic and abroad were to probe this topic from their particular perspectives the hoped for output was to be a coherent collective study of the proposed topic however due to the unexpected passing away of prof pokorný in early 2020 the project could not be executed according to the original plan rather than a collective monograph therefore the present book is a collection of essays that investigate various aspects of the bible and christianity in their relation to culture as a broad human phenomenon the book is divided into two sections while the first section focuses on particular issues in the bible the second addresses historical philosophical and cultural developments as petr pokorný was actively and importantly involved in the initial stages of the project two essays are written by him personally the whole book then is dedicated in his honor reprint of the
