India is one of the emerging markets that pose a unique set of challenges to marketers. The importance of the context and the usefulness of concepts in the Indian context is the core proposition of the book. The diversity of a mix of factors such as cultural aspects, lifestyles, demographics, and unbranded offerings make consumer behaviour a fascinating study. This book focuses on the behavioural principles of marketing and its application to branding in the Indian context. Consumer behaviour concepts associated with branding, a combination of recent and traditional examples reflecting the application of behavioural concepts, touch of reality boxes to indicate context-based examples, caselets and cases drawn from real-life situations, research findings associated with the Indian context, topical issues in consumer behaviour like cultural aspects, digital marketing, and experiential branding.
