langston hughes was one of the most important american writers of his generation and one of the most versatile producing poetry fiction drama and autobiography in this innovative study r baxter miller explores hughes s life and art to enlarge our appreciation of his contribution to american letters arguing that readers often miss the complexity of Hughes's work because of its seeming accessibility Miller begins with a discussion of the writer's auto biography an important yet hitherto neglected key to his imagination moving on to consider the subtle resonances of his life in the varied genres over which his imagination wandered Miller finds a constant symbiotic bond between the historical and the lyrical the range of Hughes's artistic vision is revealed in his depiction of black women his political stance his lyric and tragicomic modes this is one of the first studies to apply recent methods of literary analysis including formalist structuralist and semiotic criticism to the work of a black American writer Miller not only affirms in Hughes's work the peculiar qualities of black American culture but provides a unifying conception of his art and identifies the primary metaphors lying at its heart here is a fresh and coherent reading of the work of one of the twentieth century's greatest voices a reinterpretation that renews our appreciation not only of black American text and heritage but of the literary imagination itself this book examines how german language authors have intervened in contemporary debates on the obligation to extend hospitality to asylum seekers refugees and migrants the terrorist threat post 9 11 globalisation and neo liberalism the opportunities and anxieties of intensified mobility across borders and whether transnationalism necessarily implies the end of the nation state and the dawn of a new cosmopolitanism the book proceeds through a series of close readings of key texts of the last twenty years with an emphasis on the most recent works authors include terézia mora richard wagner olga grjasnowa marlene streeruwitz vladimir vertlib navid kermani felicitas hoppe daniel kehlmann ilija trojanow christian kracht and christa wolf representing the diversity of contemporary german language writing through a careful process of juxtaposition and differentiation the individual chapters demonstrate that writers of both minority and nonminority backgrounds address transnationalism in ways that certainly vary but which also often overlap in surprising ways
