book is to realize how to use your mindset and your time to create your personal wealth free yourself from the rat race open your eyes to the opportunities around you create solutions and ultimately mind your own business this book will teach you how to make money work for you and how not to become a slave to it

Book Review: Rich Dad Poor Dad by Robert Kiyosaki 2021-05-29 our summary is short simple and pragmatic it allows you to have the essential ideas of a big book in less than 30 minutes by reading this summary you will learn that to become rich you must give up your salary you will also learn that being rich doesn't mean having a full bank account what are the basics of a good financial education how to make money by working less what rich parents teach their children from a young age earning money cannot be learned in school it is usually a mindset passed on by parents who instill voluntarily or involuntarily their own view of money in their children often as it has been passed on to them wealth is usually thought of in terms of inheritance whereas a family's real wealth is the financial education it passes on it is this legacy that allows one to free oneself from an early age from any feeling of dependence on money as a child robert t kiyosaki grew up with two fathers whose financial realities were opposite a poor father his biological father and a rich father a family friend and mentor while both men are hard working intelligent and well paid one will die in debt while the other bequeaths immense capital what distinguishes these two destinies is simply the mastery of a financial education accessible to all as the author who learned it at the age of 9 proves are you ready to change your vision of money and thus make the choice of wealth buy now the summary of this book for the modest price of a cup of coffee
