this book illustrates the multiple roles of textbooks as victim transformer and accomplice to conflict by introducing the intersecting roles of education in conflict irec framework for use in the research development production distribution and dissemination of textbooks and learning materials the framework illustrates these three potentially overlapping roles by mapping the complex educational contexts of conflict affected societies and considering how textbooks learning materials and education systems more broadly may simultaneously operate within these various roles country case studies from asia europe africa and the middle east are used to analyze primary and secondary school textbook development content and application from a variety of approaches that articulate conflict as protracted and or socio political violence the breadth of case studies shows how conflict discourse circulates in educational systems and materials in a wide range of contexts indicating that the complexity of the relationship between textbooks and conflict is not unique to one culture geographic region or type of conflict
