F'D Wide Open 2016-01-24 this book explores the symbiotic relationship that exists between african spirituality and ethics felix murove discusses how these two concepts are entwined and illustrates how they play a role in applied ethical issues he argues that the general understanding of spirituality in africa stems from christianity which has had a negative impact on african indigenous spirituality the conceptual tools that run throughout the book are considerably afro centric a methodological strategy which inevitably requires the reader to adopt some prior willingness to learn these afro centric concepts without easily resorting to western christian and philosophical categories of thought the book advocates for an afro centric conceptualization of spirituality and ethics and encourages the reader to adopt a more holistic approach to african spirituality New Age Bible of Mother Africa (Volumes 1 & 2) 2000 shamanism can be defined as the practice of initiated shamans who are distinguished by their mastery of a range of altered states of consciousness shamanism arises from the actions the shaman takes in non ordinary reality and the results of those actions in ordinary reality it is not a religion yet it demands spiritual discipline and personal sacrifice from the mature shaman who seeks the highest stages of mystical development
