ACCA Approved - F4 Corporate & Business Law (ENG) (September 2017 to August 2018 exams) 2015-07-14 the first significant book on the history and impact of the ada the eyes on the prize moment for disability rights the americans with disabilities act ada is the widest ranging and most comprehensive piece of civil rights legislation ever passed in the united states and it has become the model for disability based laws around the world yet the surprising story behind how the bill came to be is little known in this riveting account acclaimed disability scholar lennard j davis delivers the first behind the scenes and on the ground narrative of how a band of leftist berkeley hippies managed to make an alliance with upper crust conservative republicans to bring about a truly bipartisan bill based on extensive interviews with all the major players involved including legislators and activists davis recreates the dramatic tension of a story that is anything but a dry account of bills and speeches rather it s filled with one indefatigable character after another culminating in explosive moments when the hidden army of the disability community stages scenes like the iconic capitol crawl or an event some describe as deaf selma when students stormed gallaudet university demanding a deaf president now from inside the offices of newly formed disability groups to secret breakfast meetings surreptitiously held outside the white house grounds here we meet countless unsung characters including political heavyweights and disability advocates on the front lines you want to fight an angered ted kennedy would shout in an upstairs room at the capitol while negotiating the final details of the ada congressman tony coelho whose parents once thought him to be possessed by the devil because of his epilepsy later became the bill s primary sponsor there s justin dart adorned in disability power buttons and his signature cowboy hat who took to the road canvassing fifty states and people like patrishia wright also known as the general arlene myerson or the brains architect bob funk and visionary mary lou breslin who left the hippie highlands of the west to pursue equal rights in the marble halls of dc published for the twenty fifth anniversary of the ada enabling acts promises to ignite readers in a discussion of disability rights by documenting this eyes on the prize moment for tens of millions of american citizens

Enabling Acts 2015-08-05 this book is the first comprehensive examination of the ethical parameters of paganism when considered as a world religion alongside christianity islam

judaism hinduism and buddhism the issues of evil value and idolatry from a pagan perspective are analyzed as part of the western ethical tradition from the sophists and platonic schools through the philosophers spinoza hume kant and nietzsche to such contemporary thinkers as grayling mackie macintyre habermas levinas santayana etc from a more practical viewpoint a delineation of applied pagan ethics is then presented in connection with current moral issues such as same sex union recreational drugs environmental awareness abortion and terrorism finally overviews of sectarian pagan ethics shinto santeria heathenism druidry romuva slavic kemeticism classical and wicca provide both the general and pagan reader with an understanding of the provocative range and differentiation of pagan ethical thought the book approaches the western ethical tradition as an historical development and a continuing dialogue the novelty of this approach lies in its consideration of paganism as a legitimate voice of religious spirituality rather than a satanic aberration or ridiculous childish behavior the book is aimed at both the contemporary western pagan and anyone with an interest in the moral dilemmas of our times and the desire to engage in the global ethical discussion among the more important features of the book are its presentation of a re evaluation of idolatry the notion of the virtue value the richness of the pagan tradition and the expansion of western ethics beyond its christian heritage

Strong to the Hoop 2014-10-30 in preparing this volume the author has been guided by his own platform experience extending over twelve years during that time he has given hundreds of public recitals before audiences of almost every description and in all parts of the country it may not be considered presumptuous therefore for him to offer some practical suggestions on the art of entertaining and holding an audience and to indicate certain selections which he has found have in themselves the elements of success the encore fiend as he is sometimes called is so ubiquitous and insistent that no speaker or reader can afford to ignore him and indeed must prepare for him in advance to find material that will satisfy him in one or in a dozen of the ordinary books of selections is an almost impossible task it is only too obvious that many compilations of the kind are put together by persons who have had little or no practical platform experience in an attempt to remedy this defect this volume has been prepared it is believed that the book will be valuable not only to the amateur and the professional reader speaker elocutionist and entertainer but also to the after dinner and impromptu speaker the politician who wants to make a hit the business man who wishes to tell a good story and tell it effectively the school teacher in arranging her friday afternoon programs as well as for reading aloud in the family circle and for many other occasions providing as this work does helpful hints on how to hold an audience it is hoped that the additional suggestions offered regarding the use of the voice and its modulation the art of pausing the development of feeling and energy the use of gesture and action the cultivation of the imagination the committing of selections to memory and the standing before an audience while not as elaborate and detailed as found in a regular manual of elocution will be of practical benefit to those who can not conveniently command the services of a personal instructor the author has been greatly assisted in this undertaking not only by the kind permission of publishers and authors to use their copyrighted work but also by the hearty cooperation of many distinguished platform speakers and readers who have generously contributed successful selections not hitherto published the author gratefully acknowledges the special permission granted him by the publishers to print the following copyright selections keep a goin the bobbs merrill company a modern romance the publishers of the smart set the fool s prayer houghton mifflin company mammy s li l boy and spacially jim the century company counting one hundred the lothrop lee shepard company at five o clock tea the publishers of lippincott s magazine
