from the horrors of balaclava following the terrible massacre of the light brigade morale is low supplies are scarce and the crimean winter is beginning to take its toll determined to capture the russian port of sevastopol the british and french lay siege to the city the russians send a huge force to break the siege and the scene is set for the battle of inkerman jack crossman is sent on another covert mission to cut russian supply lines but there is an added element of danger when it is discovered that there is a traitor on the loose in the british ranks fancy jack and his men are once again risking their lives to help ensure the success of the allied war effort in the early nineteenth century the american colonization society was formed for the purpose of encouraging emigration of free blacks to africa while intent on ridding the united states of what the society s members saw as a dangerous black population the association also attracted some liberals who viewed its goals as an incentive toward emancipation attitudes among african americans toward colonization were varied some viewing it as an opportunity to start new lives in a free country and others seeing in it a deceptive scheme of the white man but when the passage of the fugitive slave act in 1850 put the freedom of every person of african descent in jeopardy many began to consider emigration their only option this collection of historic documents illuminates the debate on emigration through the narratives of four black men who in 1853 traveled to the new black nation of liberia their accounts offer surprisingly different views and insights on the young country and provide both endorsements and condemnations of the colonization effort liberian dreams contains four selections that have never before been published in a single volume william nesbit s attack on liberia and its sponsors samuel williams s spirited defense of the black republic in response to nesbit daniel peterson s pro emigration tract commissioned by the acs and augustus washington s balanced critique of both sides of the issue each account offers a perspective not found in the others and together they cover nearly the full range of debate among black americans of that time these narratives shed light not only on the experience of creating a new country but also on the conflict among african americans over the colonization effort and they offer a unique opportunity to witness african americans encountering africans and their cultures the selection by augustus washington in particular reveals the insights of an educated community activist with a sure understanding of the issues at stake historian wilson moses who has published widely on african american history and black nationalism provides an introduction that expertly places the selections in context a monthly magazine of practical nursing devoted to the improvement and development of the graduate nurse this four part novel follows the
