siew seeks to examine the events that will unfold within the three and a half years before the dawn of the kingdom of god on earth he argues that john composed the textual unit of rev 11 1 14 5 as a coherent and unified literary unit structured in a macro chiasm he pays special attention to the fusion of form and content and seeks to elucidate how the concentric and chiastic pattern informs the meaning of the literary units within 11 1 14 5 and proposes that the text of 11 1 14 5 is best analyzed using hebraic literary conventions devices and compositional techniques such as chiasm parallelism parataxis and structural parallelism the macro chiastic pattern provides the literary structural framework for john to portray that the events of the last three and a half years unfold on earth as a result of what transpires in heaven specifically the war in heaven between michael and the dragon has earthly ramifications the outcome of the heavenly war where satan is defeated and thrown out of heaven to earth results in the war on earth between the two beasts of rev 13 and the two witnesses of rev 11 the narrative of the war in heaven 12 7 12 is seen as the pivot of the macro chiastic structure siew pays close attention to the time period of the three and a half years as a temporal and structural marker which functions to unite the various units in 11 1 14 5 into a coherent and integral whole the events of the last days will be centred in jerusalem samuel beckett and the theatre of the witness explores beckett s representation of physical pain in his theatre plays in the long aftermath of world war ii emphasising how the issues raised by this staging of pain speak directly to matters lying at the heart of his work the affective power of the human body the doubtful capacity of language as a means of communication the aesthetic and ethical functioning of the theatre medium and the vexed question of intersubjective empathy alongside the wartime and post war plays of fellow francophone writers albert camus eugène ionesco pablo picasso and marguerite duras this study resituates beckett s early plays in a new conceptualising of le théâtre du témoin or a theatre of the witness these are plays concerned with the epistemological and ethical uncertainties of witnessing another s pain rather than with the sufferer s own direct experience they raise troubling questions about our capacity to comprehend and respond to another being s pain drawing on an interdisciplinary framework of extant criticism recorded historical audience response theatre and affect theory and medical understandings of bodily pain hannah simpson argues that these plays do not offer any easily negotiable encounter with physical suffering pushing us to recognise the very otherness of another being s pain even as it invades our own affective sphere in place of any comforting transcendence or redemption of endured pain they offer a starkly sceptical even pessimistic probing of what it is to witness another s suffering
