Buster Keaton: Cut to the Chase 2009-10-21 this is the first complete biography of actress peg Entwistle known as the hollywood sign girl because of her suicide fall from the hollywoodland sign in 1932 it details her childhood stage and film career marriage and divorce and her suicide and almost cult like pop culture status today extensively researched and written with the complete cooperation of the Entwistle family this work includes excerpts from interviews with peg Entwistle's brother Milton and her cousin Helen Reid both of whom recalled much of peg's years living in hollywood her career and private life and her final weeks it also features many of peg Entwistle's own words from extant letters to her family and newly discovered interviews with theatrical reporters nearly 30 previously unpublished images from the author's collection the Entwistle family and a number of other sources complete an intimate look at a life that was defined by far more than its famously unhappy end

Television Series and Specials Scripts, 1946-1992 1999 on October 30 1947 the house committee on un-american activities concluded the first round of hearings on the alleged communist infiltration of the motion picture industry hollywood was ordered to clean its own house and ten witnesses who had refused to answer questions about their membership in the screen writers guild and the communist party eventually received contempt citations by 1950 the hollywood ten as they quickly became known which included writers directors and a producer were serving prison sentences ranging from six months to one year since that time the members of the hollywood ten have been either dismissed as industry hacks or eulogized as cold war martyrs but never have they been discussed in terms of their professions radical innocence a critical study of the hollywood ten is the first study to focus on the work of the ten their short stories plays novels criticisms poems memoirs and of course their films drawing on myriad sources including archival materials unpublished manuscripts black market scripts screenplay drafts letters and personal interviews bernard f dick describes the ten s survival tactics during the blacklisting and analyzes the contributions of these ten individuals not only to film but also to the arts radical innocence captures the personality of each of the ten including the arrogant herbert j biberman the witty ring lardner jr the patriarchal samuel ornitz the compassionate adrian scott and the feisty dalton trumbo

Tiffany Silver Flatware 1845-1905 2021-07-06 as well as play makers and poets playwrights of the early modern period were known as play patchers because their texts were made from separate documents this book is the first to consider all the papers created by authors and theatres by the time of the opening performance recovering types of script not previously known to have existed with chapters on plot scenarios arguments playbills prologues and epilogues songs staged scrolls backstage plots and parts it shows how textually distinct production was from any single unified book and as performance documents were easily lost relegated or reused the story of a play s patchy creation also becomes the story of its co authorship cuts revisions and additions using a large body of fresh evidence documents of performance in early modern england brings a wholly new reading to printed and manuscript playbooks of the shakespearean period redefining what a play and what a playwright actually is

Collecting Inspiration: Edward C. Moore at Tiffany & Co. 1966 a groundswell of interest has led to significant advances in understanding and using culturally responsive arts education to promote social justice and education this landmark volume provides a theoretical orientation to these endeavors examining a range of efforts across different forms of art various educational settings and diverse contexts it foregrounds the assets of imagination creativity resilience critique and cultural knowledge working against prevailing understandings of marginalized groups as having deficits of knowledge skills or culture emphasizing the arts as a way to make something possible it explores and illustrates the elements of social justice arts education as a way out of no way imposed by dominance and ideology a set of powerful demonstrations shows how this work looks in action introductions to the book as a whole and to each section focus on how to use the chapters pedagogically the conclusion pulls back the chapters into theoretical and pedagogical context and suggests what needs done to be done practically empirically and theoretically for the field to continue to develop

Film Quarterly 2011-08-02 screen writing is a unique literary form screenplays are like musical scores in that they are intended to be interpreted on the basis of other artists performances rather than serving as finished products for the enjoyment of their readers they are written using technical jargon and tight spare prose to describe set directions unlike a novella a script focuses on describing the literal visual aspects of the story rather than on its characters internal thoughts in screen writing the aim is to evoke those thoughts and emotions through subtext action and symbolism prominent hollywood script doctors include steve zaillian william goldman robert towne mort nathan quentin tarantino etc while many up and coming screenwriters work as ghost writers this book is a modest catalogue of some of the most prominent screenwriters listed from a to z the good are sometimes bad and they can be even ugly many comments herein included were googled in deference to the multiplicity of information available today yet they reflect exactly or almost what i thought an amazing thing today is how anonymous commentators on the internet rival and even surpass the poor quality of professional media and specialised literature it all comes down to watching the truth 24 times per second to quote jean luc godard s phrase not to mention that such truth may include sex scenes violence pedophilia etc we know that a literary masterpiece like henry james portrait of a lady became a film of very poor quality as scripted by laura jones we know conversely that a mediocre writer like mickey spillane inspired at least one film as remarkable as kiss me deadly thanks to a i bezzerides script asa former screenwriter mr correa must avow that he found the job most gratifying writing that looks effortless is often hellish to write and revise it was something he did have to slog through but it proved particularly pleasing editing discussing finishing your work is particularly gratifying identifying your flaws and working to mitigate them is also gratifying it is a general perception that creative careers are more interesting and fun than others but the privilege of earning money through imagination and creativity is effectively hard won please comment at will please disagree at will be facetious in your remarks but please be neither vicious nor mean spirited

5001 Nights at the Movies 1968 john frankenheimer s career as a professional director began and ended in television in the mid 1950s he won acclaim working on live productions for anthology series like playhouse 90 and from the mid 1990s until his death in 2002 he helmed a string of emmy winning features for cable tv including the burning season 1994 and andersonville 1996 despite these successes frankenheimer s reputation rests primarily upon the nearly thirty feature films he directed which range from bona fide classics like birdman of alcatraz 1962 and the manchurian candidate 1962 to such lesser achievements as prophecy 1979 and dead bang 1989 unfortunately for frankenheimer the discrepancy between his best films and his worst led many critics during his lifetime to dismiss him as someone whose talent dissipated in the late 1960s in the decade since his death however several critics have emerged who reject the assertion that the quality of frankenheimer s output faded after an impressive start in john frankenheimer interviews essays and profiles stephen b armstrong has collected the most interesting and insightful articles and features published on this underrated director while question and answer exchanges make up the bulk of the items featured here also included are journalistic profiles of the director at work and essays frankenheimer himself wrote for magazine audiences in addition readers will find a series of interviews of people who worked with frankenheimer including actors roy scheider tim reid and the director s wife of 40 years evans frankenheimer in this volume the director and others look back on a career that included such films as seven days in may the train grand prix the iceman cometh black sunday and ronin the first collection of its kind john frankenheimer interviews essays and profiles enables those who value the director s work to develop a better understanding of the man through his own words and the words of others
