Implementing the Framework for Teaching in Enhancing Professional Practice

deborah dean is back with a significantly reenvisioned and revised edition of her popular strategic writing after working with high school teachers who implemented the approach detailed in the first edition dean has refined reorganized and updated the material to better support classroom teachers dedicated to teaching not just the process of writing but also the strategies of writing that help students develop the ability to write effectively throughout their lives most of the changes were prompted by the desire to help teachers better understand an overall strategic approach that can counter the testing climate that pervades many schools this approach works within a workshop model and uses the writing process as an umbrella framework in addition to providing engaging and practical classroom activities this new edition offers 1 explicit strategy talk with lesson plans that differentiate between strategy activity and mini lesson to further demonstrate how all three function in a strategic approach 2 a focus on digital tools and genres which have proliferated in the last ten years 3 a more accessible organization with the conceptual material in early short chapters and the teaching ideas examples of student work and lesson plans in appendixes and 4 grouping by types of strategies for better alignment with process than with rhetoric as always dean considers students out of school as well as in school writing tasks preparing them for a world in which writing is a critical skill whether for school work information or self expression
