ecclesiastical history and an exceptionally important centre for architectural and visual innovation focusing especially but not exclusively on christ church cathedral this legacy is explored in seventeen essays concerned with canterbury s art architecture and archaeology between the early anglo saxon period and the close of the middle ages papers consider the relationship between between architectural setting and liturgical practice and between stationary and movable fittings while fresh insights are offered into the aesthetic spiritual and pragmatic considerations that shaped the fabric of christ church and st augustine s abbey alongside critical reflections on canterbury s historiography and relationship to the wider world taken together these studies demonstrate the richness worthy of note the fact that after ve years interest not only remains but actually continues to grow is highly unusual as 1998 marked the fth birthday of the international workshop on agent theories architectures and languages atal it seemed appropriate for the organizers of the original workshop to comment on this remarkable growth and re ect on how the eld has developed and matured the rst atal workshop was co located with the eleventh european conference on arti cial intelligence ecai 94 which was held in amsterdam the fact that we chose an ai conference to co locate with is telling at that time we expected most researchers with an interest in agents to come from the ai community the workshop which was planned over the summer of 1993 attracted 32 submissions and was attended by 55 people atal was the largest workshop at ecai 94 and the clear enthusiasm on behalf of the community made the decision to hold another atal workshop simple the atal 94 proceedings were formally published in the idea of administrative justice is central to the british system of public law more embracing than judicial review or even administrative law itself it embraces all the mechanisms designed to achieve a proper balance between the exercise of public and quasi public power and those affected by the exercise of that power this book contains revised versions of the papers given at the international conference on administrative justice held in bristol in 1997 forty years after the publication of the franks committee report on tribunals and inquiries the conference reflected on developments since then and sought to provoke debate about how the future might unfold participants included policy makers tribunal chairs and ombudsmen other decision takers as well as academics a formidable combination of expertise in the operation of the administrative justice system among the themes addressed in the papers are the following the effect of the changing nature of the state on current institutions human rights and administrative justice the relationship between decision taking reviews of decisions and the adjudication of appeals and the overview of administrative justice taking into account lessons from abroad the new millenium provides an opportunity for the reappraisal of the british system of administrative justice this volume presents an indispensable repository
