the structure and function of biological molecules through spectroscopic methods is a field rich in revealing clever techniques and demanding experiments it is most gratifying to see that the basic concepts are applied to more and more complex systems making feasible the study of the behaviour of whole systems in relation to molecular disturbances the analytical potential of spectroscopy and spectroscopic imaging enables species identification of bacteria and tissue recognition clear opportunities for in vivo applications become apparent in the medical field the methods developed in biophysics start to generate spin off in the direction of biotechnology where in previous years we have seen this happen for biochemical techniques new directions are manifest tools are being developed to investigate the behaviour of single molecules in interaction with their environment individual interactions can now be investigated and individual molecules in complexes can be visualized processes that were previously unobservable as a result of ensemble averaging can now be investigated on a single molecule level completely new information with regard to molecular behaviour is obtained in this way the insights amaze us and the prospect that this development will continue is exciting the 8th european conference on the spectroscopy of biological molecules is proud to have contributed to the dissemination of these new directions this proceedings book is an appropriate reflection of the progress obtained so far in the spectroscopy of biological molecules welcome to the proceedings of the 8th european conference on computer vision following a very successful eccv 2002 the response to our call for papers was almost equally strong 555 papers were submitted we accepted 41 papers for oral and 149 papers for poster presentation several innovations were introduced into the review process first the number of program committee members was increased to reduce their review load we managed to assign to program committee members no more than 12 papers second we adopted a paper ranking system program committee members were asked to rank all the papers assigned to them even those that were reviewed by additional reviewers third we allowed authors to respond to the reviews consolidated in a discussion involving the area chair and the reviewers fourth their reports their reviews and their responses were made available to the authors as well as to the program committee members our aim was to provide the authors with maximal feedback and to let the program committee members know how authors reacted to their reviews and how their reviews were or were not reflected in the final decision finally we reduced the length of reviewed papers from 15 to 12 pages the preparation of eccv 2004 went smoothly thanks to the efforts of the organizing committee the area chairs the program committee and the reviewers we are indebted to anders heyden mads nielsen and henrik j nielsen for passing on eccv traditions and to dominique asselineau from cnrs tsi who kindly provided his gestrfia conference software we thank jan olof eklundh and andrew zisserman for encouraging us to organize eccv 2004 in prague
