CMJ New Music Monthly 2001-01

an illuminating history of the song for every kind of music lover often today the word song is used to describe all music a free jazz improvisation a hindustani raga a movement from a beethoven symphony apparently they're all songs but they're not from sia to springsteen archie roach to amy winehouse a song is a specific musical form it's not so much that they all have verses and choruses though most of them do but that they are all relatively short and self-contained they have beginnings middles and ends they often have a single point of view message or story and crucially they unite words and music thus a schubert song has more in common with a track by joni mitchell or rihanna than with one of schubert s own symphonies the song remains the same traces these connections through seventy five songs from different cultures and times love songs anthems protest songs lullabies folk songs jazz standards lieder and pop hits when you wish upon a star to we will rock you jerusalem to jolene unpicking their inner workings makes familiar songs strange again explaining and restoring the wonder joy or possibly loathing the reader experienced on first hearing as much about singing musicianship and recording as it is about songwriting this eclectic ride through a unique choice of songs everyone will argue for alternatives is cleverly curated and littered with intriguing details about the creators and their times filled with loving cross references to other songs and deft musical analysis i defy anyone not to leap online to listen to the unfamiliar or re listen to old favourites in light of new detail one of the best games in this book is figuring out why one song follows the other there s always an intelligent often very funny link robyn archer
