A playing card is a piece of specially prepared card stock heavy paper thin cardboard plastic coated paper cotton paper blend or thin plastic that is marked with distinguishing motifs often the front face and back of each card has a finish to make handling easier. Playing cards are made of rectangular layers of paper or thin cardboard pasted together to form a flat semirigid material. The standard 52 card deck citation needed of french suited playing cards is the most common pack of playing cards used today. In english speaking countries it is the only traditional pack used for playing cards in many countries of the world however it is used alongside other traditional often older standard packs with 26 or 32 cards. The reality is that playing cards have undergone a radical transformation since their first beginnings several centuries ago our modern playing cards evolved into a deck of 52 cards with four suits in red and black and with two
