welcome to 1968 a revolution in a book essays memoirs and more by fourteen award winning authors offer unique perspectives on one of the world s most tumultuous years nineteen sixty eight was a pivotal year that grew more intense with each day as thousands of vietnamese and americans were killed in war students across four continents took over colleges and city streets assassins murdered dr king and robert f kennedy demonstrators turned out in prague and chicago and in mexico city young people and olympic athletes protested in those intense months generations battled and the world wobbled on the edge of some vast change that was exhilarating one day and terrifying the next to capture that extraordinary year editors marc aronson and susan campbell bartoletti created an anthology that showcases many genres of nonfiction some contributors use a broad canvas others take a close look at a moment and matched essays examine the same experience from different points of view as we face our own moments of crisis and division 1968 reminds us that we ve clashed before and found a way forward and that looking back can help map a way ahead with contributions by jennifer anthony marc aronson susan campbell bartoletti loree griffin burns paul fleischman omar figueras laban carrick hill mark kurlansky lenore look david lubar kate macmillan kekla magoon jim murphy elizabeth partridge

Law and Ethics for Today's Journalist 2014-12-18

law and ethics for today s journalist offers aspiring and working journalists the practical understanding of law and ethics they must have to succeed at their craft instead of covering every nuance of media law for diverse communications majors mathewson focuses exclusively on what s relevant for journalists even though media law and media ethics are closely linked together in daily journalistic practice they are usually covered in separate volumes mathewson brings them together in a clear and colourful way that practicing journalists will find more useful everything a journalist needs to know about legal protections limitations and risks inherent in workaday reporting is illustrated with highlights from major court opinions mathewson advises journalists who must often make ethical decisions on the spot with no time for the elaborate multi faceted analysis the book assigns to journalists the hard decisions on ethical questions such as whether to go undercover or otherwise misrepresent themselves in order to get a big story the ethics chapter precedes the law chapters because ethical standards should underlie a journalist s work at all times there may be occasions when ethics and law are not parallel thus calling for the journalist to make a personal judgment law and ethics for today s journalist is user friendly written in clear direct understandable language on issues that really matter to a working journalist supplementary reading of the actual court cases is recommended and links to most cases are provided in the text the text includes a fine but purposely not exhaustive bibliography listing important and useful legal cases including instructive appellate and trial court opinions state as well as federal the vichy past in france today corruptions of memory is an interdisciplinary study examining the continuing impact of the memory of vichy and world war ii in french politics literature intellectual discourse and debates and the law it argues that despite multiple efforts in all of these areas to come to terms with france s world war ii past and to fulfill a duty to memory to vichy s jewish victims the nation is still not reconciled to the so called dark years even seventy years after the liberation indeed the vichy past occupies important recent works of literature inflects much political discussion and debate often serving as a metaphor for political and moral evil its legacies include the passage of problematic laws that dangerously distort and simplify complex historical realities chapter i examines the historical and legal legacies of the 1990s trials for crimes against humanity and traces their impact on the so called memorial laws of the new century chapter ii revisits the 2002 presidential elections in france and the impact of jean marie le pen s first round victory on intellectual and cultural debate chapter iii explores alain badiou s controversial characterization of sarkozy s presidential victory as a return of petainism in the meaning of sarkozy the discussion is cast against the backdrop of badiou s radical political thought and sarkozy s political uses and misuses of the world war ii past chapter iv examines the controversy surrounding the publication of jonathan littell s the kindly ones 2006 and its morally and historically problematic portrayal of an unrepentant nazi and ss officer chapter v discusses yannick haenel s fictional recreation of the polish resistance hero jan karski the messenger 2009 in his novel by that name and the polemics between the novel s author and the maker of the classic holocaust documentary film shoah claude lanzmann the conclusion first explores the ways in which the memory of vichy inflects literary and political reflections on the recent terrorist attacks in france it also examines strategies proposed by french philosophers for moving beyond the impasse of vichy s memory in france before concluding with a different strategy proposed by the author for the french nation to move beyond the memory of the dark years

the fast evolving relationship between the promotion of welfare enhancing competition and the balanced protection of intellectual property ip rights has attracted the attention of policymakers analysts and scholars this interest is inevitable in an environment that lays ever greater emphasis on the management of knowledge and innovation and on mechanisms to ensure that the public derives the expected social and economic benefits from this innovation and the spread of knowledge this book looks at the positive linkage between ip and competition in jurisdictions two themes seem to emerge repeatedly when reading through this volume one is consensus and the other is search there was a strong consensus during the congress that children and families were the major and foremost concern of all present regardless of their geographic origin or professional background this concern was often expressed in terms of commitment to or as goal for the international mental health movement for the years to come the second theme search represents an effort to translate this concern into activities search for concrete immediate goals for ways and means of translating into actual programs and projects for interested people to carry on the work and better ways to train them to do the work well for ways to obtain support and lastly search for ways of coordinating efforts of people in different parts of the world all these and other matters are taken up in the discussions in this volume the complexity of problems encountered in a rapidly changing world and the diversity of resources available in different parts of the world make the task of searching difficult and sometimes confusing in spite of the earnest efforts made the results may be inconclusive and some of those pro posed can be regarded only as hypotheses or ideas for experimentation
