File formats are a way of organizing data into a structure that can be read and written by a computer. The most common file formats are those used for text, images, and audio. The most common text file formats are plain text, rich text, and HTML. The most common image file formats are PNG, JPEG, GIF, and WebP. The most common audio file formats are MP3, AAC, and WAV. AVIF is a new image format that is designed to be more efficient than the others.
