 excerpt from picture books for children animals garden said mary and i will show you one much tamer than that when we were come into the other garden she called dick dick once more and another robin came at once this time mary put a crumb of bread be tween her lips and as soon as the bird saw it he flew up flutter ing with his wings all the while took it out of her mouth with his bill and flew back to the stack of wood where another robin joined about the publisher
