here is the exhaustive and exhilarating story of hms venomous one of sixty seven v w destroyers built at the end of the great war that were to play a key role in the struggle to keep the sea lanes open in the atlantic home waters and the mediterranean during the following war her story was perhaps the most memorable of all her class when war broke out she was to find herself in the front line as the german blitzkrieg swept across europe in 1940 and the v ws made high speed dashes across the channel to bring troops and civilians back from calais boulogne and dunkirk and prepared for the expected invasion later that year she and her sister ships escorted the atlantic convoys which supplied our russian allies with the weapons to halt the german advance she returned to the mediterranean and took part in operation pedestal to save malta and as the allies prepared for the landings in north africa she was ordered to escort the destroyer depot ship hms hecla to the invasion beaches when hecla was torpedoed off the coast off morocco venomous fought the attacking u boat and rescued 500 survivors she escorted convoys along the coast of north africa including the first through convoy from gibraltar to alexandria and she joined the invasion force to sicily during operation husky in october 1943 she returned to britain for a major refit at falmouth when she was converted to an air target ship for training barracuda torpedo bombers based at douglas isle of man and then after being transferred to the east coast she was nearly lost in a hurricane before being sent to kristiansand to accept the surrender of german naval forces venomous and her sister ships were all scrapped after the war but her extraordinary career during which she fought without cessation is brought to life in this rousing and beautifully told ship biography a fitting memorial to the v ws and the men who served in them i would rate this as being in the same class as the cruel sea for a picture of small ship life in world war two the naval review a portrayal of life on a wartime destroyer with a depth and insight that is possible unequalled by any previously published work warship annual this book is outstanding for its detailed insight into the life on not just a single destroyer but by extension life at sea aboard and royal navy destroyer the northern mariner a hard fought ship is a vivid portrait of a fighting vessel and the men who operated her warships international fleet review highly recommended to both naval historians and the general public mariner s mirror it is an exemplary ship biography where a detailed narrative of the destroyer s exploits are brought to life by a wealth of first hand accounts navy news this book is a detailed and thrilling account of the life of a typical v w class destroyer sea breezes

this book examines the transgressions of the credit rating agencies before during and after the recent financial crisis it proposes that by restricting the agencies ability to offer ancillary services there stands the opportunity to limit in an achievable and practical manner the potentially negative effect that the big three rating agencies standard poor s moody s and fitch may have upon the financial sector and society moreover the book contains an extensive and in depth discussion about how the agencies ascended to their current position why they were able to do so and ultimately their behaviour once their position was cemented this work offers a new framework for the reader to follow suggesting that investors issuers and the state have a desired version of the agencies in their thinking and operate upon that basis when in fact those imagined agencies do not exist as demonstrated by the actual conduct of the agencies the book primarily aims to uncover this divergence and reveal the real credit rating agencies and then on that basis propose a real and potentially achievable reform to limit the negative effects that result from poor performance in this industry it addresses the topics with regard to financial regulation and the financial crisis and will be of interest to legal scholars interested in the intersection between business and the law as well as researchers academics policymakers industry and professional associations and students in the fields of corporate law banking and finance law financial regulation corporate governance and corporate finance the authors have based the book primarily on data derived from the 1988 canadian election study for which they were co investigators the survey was a rolling cross section a daily tracking of the campaign designed explicitly to monitor electoral dynamics the multivariate techniques commonly involved in the analysis of campaign data are presented here in an accessible way as graphs rather than tables videotapes of prime time news analyses on cbc ctv and src outlets as well as some newspaper commentaries have been integrated into the survey this information is contrasted with an analysis of electoral dynamics based on one hundred years of census and electoral data the authors make a variety of significant arguments about the historical and political basis of the parties eventual positions on the issue of free trade the overriding importance of that issue to the 1988 election the roles of the party leaders and perhaps most important the political impact of campaigns especially of debates and media coverage letting the people decide brings the study of canadian parties into the analytical mainstream even as it supplies a new interpretation of a century of elections there she goes again interrogates the representation of ostensibly powerful women in transmedia franchises examining how presumed feminine traits love empathy altruism diplomacy are alternately lauded and repudiated as possibilities for effecting long lasting social change by questioning how these franchises reimagine their protagonists over time the book reflects on the role that gendered exceptionalism plays in social and political action as well as what forms of knowledge and power are presumed distinctly feminine the franchises explored in this book illustrate the ambivalent post feminist representation of women protagonists as uniquely gifted in ways both gendered and seemingly ungendered and yet inherently bound to expressions of their femininity at heart there she goes again asks under what terms and in what contexts women protagonists are imagined envisioned embodied and replicated in media especially now in a period of gradually increasing representation women protagonists demonstrate the importance of considering how we should define and whether we need feminine forms of knowledge and power
