and arriving to venice italy in october 2015 the 22 revised full papers and 6 short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 81 submissions the papers deal with the topics related to the theme of the conference the mobile learning voyage from small ripples to massive open waters the conference theme paid tribute to the developments that brought mobile learning from its infancy steps in the early 2000s to maturity in 2015 while simultaneously paving the way for the broad and open waters ahead with new developments and progress in mobile learning and emerging ambient technologies this book explores the impact of language frameworks on learning teaching and assessment viewed from the perspective of policies procedures and challenges it brings together a selection of edited papers based on presentations given at the 4th international conference of the association of language testers in europe alte held in kraków poland in july 2011 the selected papers focus on the conference s core themes as follows the effect of frameworks on teaching learning and assessment the value of frameworks for teachers learners and language policymakers the contribution of frameworks towards describing particular languages completely covers all question types since 1996 exposes all trick questions makes available full set of step by step solution approaches provides their understanding of the foundation principles of assessment stay up to date with the latest classroom approaches and have the confidence to evaluate and question the effectiveness of new methods this professional resource for teachers supports them to understand the what why and how of assessment it provides key knowledge on the types and purposes of assessment and explores key themes such as validity reliability and fairness it explores assessment in practice offering practical support for busy teachers and takes an in depth look at how qualifications are designed and developed and how examinations are marked graded and regulated contemporary changes in law and policy at the global level to efficiently answer to environmental and social issues correspond to the traditional approach of limiting the regulatory and policy changes to a singular field or discipline tackling the inherent unsustainability of corporate laws or incentivising the offering of sustainable finance to stimulate the transition towards sustainable practices this book provides a new viewpoint and approach of simultaneously regulating seemingly non connected fields in order to provide a fertile ground for a truly organic change towards sustainable outcomes it addresses diverse questions of sustainable transition of the three specific fields to support sustainable practices in public procurement private market transaction and in educating future business leaders and legal experts by incorporating sustainable concerns as the underlying guiding principles of their conduct it translates scientific findings into a practical format that can be used by diverse stakeholders searching for information and solutions in their respective professional fields the underlying assumption is that a simultaneous action in the three respective fields of public procurement corporate law and higher education brings about more coherent and interconnected results that incentivise further action and changes towards sustainable practices the book furthers the idea of policy coherence by building upon the findings in the field of public procurement corporate law and practice and higher education curricula by identifying the barriers in the three respective fields for sustainable action and proposing solutions for either eliminating or minimising those barriers at the eu level the book calls for further changes in the respective fields as well as for considering the spillover effects of these policies on other fields this volume explores numerous themes including the influence of ethnography on religious education research and pedagogy the interpretive approach to religious education the relationship between research and classroom practice in religious education bundle providing a critique of contemporary religious education and exploring the implications of this critique for initial and continuing teacher education this book presents a case for teaching philosophy in schools it develops two original arguments for teaching philosophy to all students at some point over the course of their education gatley argues that teaching philosophy is the best way to help students to think clearly using ordinary or non specialist concepts such as good truth or happiness she goes on to argue that teaching philosophy is the best way to help students to make sense of the different conceptual schemes used by different school subjects combining these two arguments gatley suggests that these two roles for philosophy are central to the task of educating people and so philosophy ought to be included on school curricula building on the work of philosophers of education including richard stanley peters harry brighthouse matthew lipman mary midgley and martha nussbaum the book covers a range of topics including philosophy for children p4c the aims education religious education curriculum design and education policy supports teachers to understand the foundation principles of assessment stay up to date with the latest classroom approaches and have the confidence to evaluate and question the effectiveness of new methods energy risk has reappeared on the corporate and social agenda with a bang and the complexity of the issues has increased many fold since the days of the last great wave of concern following the oil crises of the 1970s steven fawkes energy efficiency is a comprehensive guide for managers and policy makers to the fundamental questions underpinning energy efficiency and our responses to it what do we really mean by energy efficiency what is the potential in different dimensions why it is important what management processes lead to optimisation of energy efficiency what technologies are useful for improving energy efficiency what policies can be used to promote energy efficiency how can energy efficiency be financed how can energy suppliers engage with energy efficiency the result is the most comprehensive review to date of the barriers and opportunities associated with improving energy efficiency clearly written and erudite steven fawkes addresses every aspect of energy efficiency including the huge and vitally important untapped potential offered by effective energy management and the application of existing technology he also identifies barriers such as the rebound effect and how they can be mitigated and he provides a comprehensive review of innovative energy efficiency financing options this book is a must read for anyone with an interest in energy supply and demand reduction in a changing climate characterised by rapid urbanisation it is increasingly difficult to devise resilient urban governance models which also preserve the environment this book takes singapore the incontestable leader in this field as a case study delving into the triumphant story of its successes in urban governance and smart city planning this book combines insights from language assessment literacy and critical language testing through critical analyses and research about challenges in language assessment around the world it investigates problematic practices in language testing which are relevant to language test users such as language program directors testing centers and language teachers as well as teachers in training in graduate diploma and master of arts in applied linguistics programs these issues involve aspects of language testing such as test development test administration scoring and interpretation use of test results chapters in this volume discuss insights about language testing policy testing world languages developing program level language tests and tests of specific language skills and language assessment literacy in addition this book identifies two needs in language testing for further examination the need for collaboration between language test developers language test users and language users and the need to base language tests on real world language use longlisted for the hessell tiltman prize when 25 year old private johnson beharry won the victoria cross in 2005 for bravery under fire in iraq he was the
