are mainly three laws of motion which explain the relationship between a body's force and the motion of the body. 1. If a body is at rest or moving at a constant speed it will continue to rest or move at a constant speed if a force is not applied. This is the first law. 2. If a force is applied to a body, it will accelerate in the direction of the force. This is the second law. 3. For every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction. This is the third law.
