in the utilization of social technologies in relation to knowledge management and organizational development international migration law provides a detailed and comprehensive overview of the international legal framework applicable to the movement of persons across borders the role of international law in this field is complex and often ambiguous there is no single source for the international law governing migration the current framework is scattered throughout a wide array of rules belonging to numerous fields of international law including refugee law human rights law humanitarian law labour law trade law maritime law criminal law and consular law this textbook therefore cuts through this complexity by clearly demonstrating what the current international law is and assessing how it operates the book offers a unique and comprehensive mapping of this growing field of international law it brings together and critically analyses the disparate conventional customary and soft law on a broad variety of issues such as irregular migration human trafficking refugee protection labour migration non discrimination regional free movement schemes and global migration governance it also offers a particular focus on important groups of migrants namely migrant workers refugees and smuggled migrants it maps the current status of the law governing their movement providing a thorough critical analysis of the various stands of international law which apply to them suggesting how the law may continue to develop in the future this book provides the perfect introduction to all aspects of migration and international law between 1996 and 2014 mark driscoll s mars hill church multiplied from its base in seattle into fifteen facilities spread across five states with 13 000 attendees when it closed the church was beset by scandal with former attendees testifying to spiritual abuse emotional manipulation and financial exploitation in biblical porn jessica johnson examines how mars hill s congregants became entangled in processes of religious conviction johnson shows how they were affectively recruited into sexualized and militarized dynamics of power through the mobilization of what she calls biblical porn the affective labor of communicating promoting and embodying driscoll s teaching on biblical masculinity femininity and sexuality which simultaneously worked as a marketing strategy social imaginary and biopolitical instrument johnson theorizes religious conviction as a social process through which mars hill s congregants circulated and amplified feelings of hope joy shame and paranoia as affective value that the church capitalized on to grow at all costs analyzes how the possibility of egg freezing changes what it means to be
