An Alternative Path to Modernity 2021-11-29 the essays in this volume deal with the social and intellectual history of the western spanish and portuguese jews who established new communities in northwestern europe during the seventeenth century the founders of these communities were mainly former marranos descendants of those jews who had converted to christianity in the closing years of the middle ages after being separated from the jewish world for many generations they returned to judaism and became an integral part of the sephardi fulfillment

The Devotion and Promotion of Stigmatics in Europe, c. 1800-1950 2020-10-12 in the nineteenth century a new type of mystic emerged in catholic europe while cases of stigmatisation had been reported since the thirteenth century this era witnessed the development of the stigmatic young women who attracted widespread interest thanks to the appearance of physical stigmata to understand the popularity of these stigmatics we need to regard them as the saints and religious celebrities of their time with their miraculous bodies they fit contemporary popular ideas if not necessarily the church of what sanctity was as knowledge
