the eloquent and uncompromising calls for social righteousness by the minor prophets are familiar to many yet the writings themselves are probably the least studied and least known texts of the old testament those who are familiar with these books are also aware of the historical and literary problems that plague their study drawing on theological historical and literary insights leslie allen s commentary on joel obadiah jonah and micah carefully and imaginatively reconstructs the context in which the original hebrew audience received the prophets messages in turn allen shows what relevance they hold for contemporary christians for each of the books allen includes a substantial introduction presenting and assessing a broad range of scholarship a select bibliography and an extensive commentary on the author s own translation of the text allen pays special attention to micah in which he treats at greater length many of the forms and motifs that also appear in joel obadiah and jonah the introductory material for joel includes discussions of canonicity and textual criticism that apply to the entire volume obadiah is a prophecy of judgment on edom descendants of esau who bore a grudge against judah the descendants of jacob the edomites viewed all the wealth and prosperity of judah as rightfully theirs this centuries old envy caused them to seek every opportunity to do harm to god s people st augustine saw in obadiah an early example of the city of man opposing the city of god r j rushdoony brings the conflict even closer condemning the spiritual edomites of our day who believe evildoers have the power to frustrate the progress of the kingdom of god jonah provides us with dramatic examples of god s judgment and mercy when reading jonah we tend to focus on god s wrath upon jonah while forgetting that his assigned mission was one of grace to nineveh capital of one of the most brutal empires in history despite being delivered from the fish jonah still complained when god showed mercy upon nineveh rushdoony demonstrates that we play the part of jonah when we second guess god complain about the work he gives us or are peevish when outcomes are not to our liking rushdoony once wrote to himself in his own bible jonah rushdoony is it your gourd vine or the lord s work that fills your prayers and thoughts arise nineveh is around you and its thousands of needy souls these sermons will both challenge and inspire your faith
