have seen the dutchman s home land i have rambled not hastily but leisurely not in one or two but in all the provinces of the netherlands the majority of americans like most british folk visit only the two hollands north and south and then see but a narrow line of landscape from the car windows for the average tourist the elect route is from rotterdam to amsterdam yet i confess to delightful days in such far off places as dokkum and finsterwolde doesburg and goes and in such mysterious lands as drenthe and limburg my hope is that my fellow countrymen will discover that in queen wilhelmina s realm there are nine other provinces besides the two hollands yes even a north a south and an east as well as a narrow strip between the two dams of cities near the sea about the publisher forgotten books
