written with a dash of vinegar a fresh start tells nine wry happy bitter funny and ironic tales of fate and destiny pipe dreams and fortune hunters vanity and pleasures of the rich curdled love and finaglers skeptics and scoffers fools and simpletons all put together with satire and witticism and great big smiles in the face of adversity danish sport has been associated with europe and the world not least through i p muller and niels bukh and the danish gymnastics revolution with its emphasis on male aesthetics and hygiene in the first half of the twentieth century at the same time denmark has stood apart from europe in the early moments of its history of sport with the rural revolution of the farming communities as a statement of political independence and assertion however during the german occupation of denmark danish sport was part of a european collaboration which characterized a number of the occupied countries not least in the nordic area after the second world war denmark embraced international body cultures with other european nations in particular eastern martial arts denmark too as part of trends in the european region and the world became caught up in sport as a powerful contemporary political statement this book was previously published as a special issue of the international journal of the history of sport cincinnati magazine taps into the dna of the city
