everybody's son probes directly into the tender spots of race and privilege in America with assured prose and deep insight into the human heart. Umrigar explores the moral gray zone of what parents no matter their race will do for love. Celeste Ng, author of Everything I Never Told You, during a terrible heat wave in 1991, the worst in a decade, ten-year-old Anton has been locked in an apartment in the projects alone for seven days without air conditioning or a fan, with no electricity, the refrigerator and lights do not work, hot, hungry, and desperate, Anton shatters a window and climbs out, cutting his leg on the broken glass, he is covered in blood when the police find him. Juanita, his mother, is discovered in a crack house less than three blocks away, nearly unconscious and half-naked when she comes to, she repeatedly asks for her baby boy, she never meant to leave Anton, she went out for a quick hit and was headed right back until her drug dealer raped her and kept her high, though the bond between mother and son is extremely strong, Anton is placed with child services while Juanita goes to jail.
