the first volume in the landmark official history of australian operations in iraq afghanistan and east timor born of fire and ash is an honest challenging and compelling account of the 1999 2000 east timor crisis and australia s response to it australia s involvement in east timor from 1999 2000 was this nation s largest mission conducted under united nations auspices the single largest deployment of adf personnel since the second world war and an instrumental part of timor leste gaining its independence critically it was also one not nestled within a larger or lead nation s logistics and administrative support and also the first time australia had led such a large multi national force in short international force east timor was the most complex politico strategic challenge australia had faced at least since the 1940s written from classified government sources and buttressed by hundreds of interviews with veterans and stakeholders this first volume in the landmark official history of australian operations in iraq afghanistan and east timor born of fire and ash is an honest challenging and compelling account of the 1999 2000 east timor crisis and australia s response to it it tackles the good alongside the bad successes and failures to chart a complex truth unknown to most australians then and now of the estimated 12 million refugees in the world more than 7 million have been confined to camps effectively warehoused in some cases for 10 years or more holding refugees in camps was anathema to the founders of the refugee protection regime today with most refugees encamped in the less developed parts of the world the humanitarian apparatus has been transformed into a custodial regime for innocent people based on rich ethnographic data rights in exile exposes the gap between human rights norms and the mandates of international organisations on the one hand and the reality on the ground on the other it will be of wide interest to social scientists and to human rights and international law scholars policy makers donor governments and humanitarian organizations especially those adopting a rights based approach will also find it an invaluable resource but it is the refugees themselves who could benefit the most if these actors absorb its lessons and apply them
