twenty years ago at age twenty nine andrea sullivan was a high level executive at hud in a state of what she now calls dis ease stressed out thirty pounds overweight with a face full of acne moved by a desire to help her community and herself in a meaningful way she quit her job and decided to become a doctor she applied and was accepted to bastyr medical school for alternative medicine and became a naturopathic physician since then dr sullivan has been at the vanguard of naturopathic medicine and has helped hundreds of african americans create dramatic and lasting lifestyle changes unlike traditional doctors naturopathic physicians with the aid of herbs roots and other natural remedies treat the patient not the disease here in easy to understand language dr sullivan provides an overview of alternative medicine paying close attention to naturopathy discusses the african american tradition and its link to naturopathic medicine and delves into stress high blood pressure arthritis obesity depression and diabetes all problems that plague african americans and prescribes an overall guide to maintaining health and keeping disease at bay in a path to healing dr sullivan makes a convincing case for naturopathic medicine as the best way to prevent disease and treat chronic illnesses while not discounting the use of traditional western medicine especially in cases of traumatic injury identity is a pertinent subject because many of us in today s world have lost the knowledge of who we are why we re here and what our purpose is while on earth i have traveled this subject for the past sixty seven years it all began as a young christian international worker to indonesia everything that had defined me identity was stripped away by a new culture language and community the impact of that was deep seated inferiority and inadequacy intuitively i knew the problem lay deep inside my soul the ensuing years have been a journey of identity of self discovery and god discovery the two are inseparable self discovery exposed me to me who i thought i was who i aspired to be and then who i really was my good and my bad my strengths and my weaknesses it was a road that led to self acceptance but is self acceptance a wall or a door does it lead to a dead end or to change god discovery meant experiencing who god is his holiness and love in tandem i found that his holiness gives foundation to his love and his love reflects his holiness i also found that because of who he is he accepts me for who i am in all my raw nakedness much of this journey of discovery was through desert landscapes disappointments disillusionments stressful circumstances unfulfilled dreams dashed hopes thwarted ambition unemployment all necessary in this journey to identity may i invite you to walk with me to perhaps see your own journey in mine finding wholeness and freedom in who you are because of who god is
