Life 2010-10-26 in the summer of 1816 mary wollstonecraft godwin and her lover percy bysshe shelley visited lord byron at his villa by lake geneva the eruption of mount tabora in 1815 had cast a long volcanic winter and the weather was not conducive to outdoor pursuits instead the companions amused themselves by reading ghost stories and byron challenged them to write their own a terrifying nightmare inspired the eighteen year old mary to write the tale that she would later expand into her classic novel frankenstein or the modern prometheus a deeply disturbing story of one man s attempt to reanimate the dead and the deadly consequences of his actions frankenstein has horrified readers since the novel s first publication in 1818 and is hailed as one of the pioneering works of gothic science fiction

Harper's New Monthly Magazine 1878 for years i have been speaking my mind about the good and the bad from the north to east from the character of friendliness and nothingness from the stash and the best of nature this book contains most of the events in my life the quotes and poems that i dedicate to my family and all of my loved ones i always wanted to share these things with different kinds of people the righteous or the bad come and travel the wilderness with me

Em and Me 2022 the american public has been told what recent historians wanted them to believe the united states is not a christian nation this is true in only one respect you don t have to be a christian following a specific denomination to be an american citizen however the ideological foundation this country is based on christian principles developed by christian founding fathers modern historians have distorted these facts to correct these distortions the biographies of the founding fathers their actual statements and christian beliefs are presented in this work the catalyst for the birth of our nation was the moment when benjamin franklin incorrectly considered a deist by many suggested that the quarrelsome continental convention recognize how the creator had listened to and answered their prayers in the past he suggested daily prayer be instituted asking henceforth prayers imploring the assistance of heaven and its blessings on our deliberations be held in this assembly every morning the quarreling continued but the emphasis became how to successfully unite the newly independent colonies the colonies united under christian principles however over the years those principles and their original intent have been diluted recognizing the condition of the world today isn t it a good time to renew those principles

God Used Holes in My Son's Shoes to Change My Life 2014-03-31 cancer plant explosion massive auto accident all that and more yet god still blessed him how could anyone cope with everything and still come out shouting praise every time he turned around there was a new test a new trial will jason be able to stay focused on god instead of the valleys of life jasons life journey has definitely been a journey of faith the true test of faith is seen when we face down the challenges that life can bring for a diamond to become a precious gem it must stay under the chisel and for gold to be purified it has to remain in the fire jasons life experiences have definitely put him under the chisel and through the fire through it all jason remains constant in his walk with christ and stronger than ever in his faith reading jasons book is both challenging and inspiring i am blessed to have jason in my life as a ministry partner and a friend though the future is unknown and the next chapter has yet to be written in jasons life whatever comes his way i know where i will find him he will be loving serving and growing in christ mike chandler senior pastor journey church cancer the most feared word today blown up bitten by a black widow spider a life threatening car wreck colitis and all of the pain that accompanies each one of these

Our Christian Founding Fathers 2015-06-26 mother s statement this book is about our experience with my daughter debra s walk with cancer it is every mother s nightmare losing a child it began the first day my daughter was diagnosed never did i consider the possibility that my diary would serve any purpose other than to try to understand the mystery and confusions or lack of information or misinformation during her treatments also our hopes disappointments the roller coaster of emotions and the confusing medications we have never been able to verify her treatments as after numerous requests we were not given debra s medical records

In His Hands 2012-06-29 using original documents from the u s army military history institute including extracts from letters and diaries of serving soldiers as well as from official reports and papers this book recalls the experiences of americans who fought in the first world war individual chapters cover different periods from enlistment to victory in a chronological fashion the book also features topics such as weaponry medical services and entertainment

Motivational Interviewing 2015-01-02 janelle was eleven years old when she wrote her first poem as part of a sixth grade writing assignment many were moved by her heartfelt poem about the loss of her brother and their praise inspired her to continue writing journal entries and short stories followed many of these appear in mosaic through poems that she describes as candid conversations mosaic will show her growth as a person and as a writer from ages eleven to twenty seven the book matures as i mature she says

Debra's Gifts 2013-08-01 published 1882 98 this ten part work by harvard s first professor of english became an essential resource for scholars and folklorists

Chronicles of the Schoenberg-Cotta Family 1891 the editors have brought together a range of eminent contributors who present a range of issues throughout the life cycle the book asserts that it hopes to assist readers to anticipate change and discontinuity in people s lives and think about strategies to support them through the many challenges that they may face in their lives in my view this book certainly does that and the editors and contributors are to be congratulated on the production of a relevant and contemporary text that i have no hesitation in both endorsing and recommending to all involved in supporting and or caring for people with learning disabilities professor bob gates project leader learning disabilities workforce development nhs education south central uk the editors have gathered an authoritative faculty to present and discuss a range of contemporary issues both practical and ethical the text is well grounded in the lived experience of people with disability and draws on the evidence base of contemporary science each chapter includes thought provoking exercises this is a seminal text for students and practitioners researchers and policy makers associate professor keith r mcville deakin university australia i currently own a copy of the first edition and it has proved an invaluable resource time and time again there is not an essay i complete that does not make reference to the book and i can consistently use it to reflect back on my practice as a student nurse and social worker having read several extracts from the new edition it does appear to include very high quality content covering learning disabilities over the lifespan if i were to personally recommend any book for budding or current learning disability professionals then this would be it james grainger student nurse social worker sheffield hallam university uk i like the way it has primary and secondary information from a range of sources the exercises in the book also get you to think about the situation in question which helps us think about our values and anti oppressive practice this book really does start with the basics and having a learning disability from birth and the effects to in depth knowledge and literature this book would be very helpful to me as it brings in literature policies and models from both a health and social side which is important for my course and collaborative working laura jean lowe student nurse sheffield hallam university uk it is written with a clearly conveyed in depth knowledge and in a way that has professional lived experience within the context of the work the authors have taken into account the emotional client centred approach to the modern practitioner s practice the book gives a true wealth of good practice scenarios that can only help practitioners be good at what they do and aspire to be lee marshall student nurse sheffield hallam university uk with its spread of chapters covering key issues across the life cycle this text has established itself as the foundational primer for those studying the lived experiences of people with learning disabilities and their families and outcomes achieved through services and support systems recognising learning disability as a lifelong disability this accessible book is structured around the life cycle the second edition is refreshed and expanded to include seven new chapters covering aetiology breaking news about disability and early intervention transition to adulthood the sexual lives of women employment personalisation people with hidden identities with contributions from respected figures from a range of disciplines the book draws heavily upon multidisciplinary perspectives and is based on the latest research and evidence for practice the text is informed by medical social and legal models of learning disability exploring how learning disability is produced reproduced and understood extensive use is made of real life case studies designed to bring theory values policy and practice to life narrative chapters describe in the words of people with learning disabilities themselves their lives and aspirations they helpfully show readers the kinds of roles played by families advocates and services in supporting people with learning disabilities new exercises and questions have been added to encourage discussion and reflection on practice learning disability is core reading for students entering health and social care professions to work with people with learning disabilities it is a compelling reference text for practitioners as it squarely addresses the challenges facing people with learning disability their loved ones and the people supporting them contributors dawn adams kathryn almack dorothy atkinson nigel beail christine bigby alison brammer jacqui brewster hilary brown jennifer clegg lesley cogher helen combes clare connors bronach crawley eric emerson margaret flynn linda gething dan goodley peter goward gordon grant chris hatton sheila hollins jane hubert kelley johnson gwynnyth llewellyn heather mc alister michelle mccarthy alex mcclimens roy mconkey david mcconnell keith mckinstrie fiona mackenzie ghazala mir ada montgomery lesley montisci elizabeth murphy chris oliver richard parrott paul ramcharan malcolm richardson bronwyn roberts philippa russell kirsten stalker martin stevens john taylor irene tuffrey wijne sally twist jan walmsley kate woodcock

American Voices of World War I 2014-01-27 the second volume of riveting memoirs from hans kung the leading and controversial theologian hans kung has been a major influence on post war christianity by any reckoning a peritus for the second vatican council he then went on to publish a number of controversial books including infallible an enquiry 1971 which enraged the vatican and caused him to lose the ecclesiastical approval of his teaching at the university of tübingen however he remains a respected priest in good standing with his bishop throughout all the upheavals that the catholic church has undergone in recent decades kung has been an outspoken observer turning himself from enfant terrible to bête noire however his world influence has been great whether speaking at the united nations or consorting with politicians and religious leaders he is always listened to with respect and enthusiasm a string of recent books has added to his reputation notably on being a christian 1974 and does god exist an answer for today 1980 what is not so well known is that as a young man küng was a close friend and confidant of joseph ratzinger benedict xvi over the years however they increasingly came to represent exactly what the other most despised on being appointed to the holy see ratzinger had a long private meeting with küng the consequences of which may resonate within the catholic church for many years in these thrilling memoirs küng gives his personal account of all these struggles and ambitions the result is a book of major importance for any student of the church in the 20th century this second volume covers the period following the close of the second vatican council right up to the present day

Miami Blues 2014-08-14 there is a part of us which neither listens to the voice of reason nor submit easily to social moral conventions like a child it relentlessly pursues whatever catches its fancy and keeps playing with fire it can either help us actualize our heroic potential or put us on the road to self destruction perhaps the key to this difference lies in what we do with our emotional psychic wounds which are a necessary part of the growth process the book explores the inner landscape of this part of our psyche through the mythological figures of balarama duryodhana and bhima it also examines the present day context of human existence which has ironically enhanced both our prowess and helplessness and thereby pushed this part of ourselves into our psychic social underbelly
