The High School Quarterly 1932 do unto others as you would others should do to you you can never be rude if you bear the rule always in mind for what lady likes to be treated rudely true christian politeness will always be the result of an unselfish regard for the feelings of others and though you may err in the ceremonious points of etiquette you will never be im polite politeness founded upon such a rule becomes the expression in graceful manner of social virtues the spirit of politeness consists in a certain attention to forms and ceremonies which are meant both to please others and ourselves and to make others pleased with us a still clearer definition may be given by saying that politeness is goodness of heart put into daily practice there can be no true politeness without kindness purity singleness of heart and sensibility many believe that politeness is but a mask worn in the world to conceal bad passions and impulses and to make a show of possessing virtues not really existing in the heart thus that politeness is merely hypocrisy and dissimulation do not believe this be certain that those who profess such a doctrine are practising themselves the deceit they condemn so much
