servant of god and of the lord fesus christ the description which the writer gives of himself throws no light on his identity the term servant better slave as one who had been bought with a price 1 cor vi 20 vii 43 was used of themselves by both st peter 2 pet i 1 and st paul rom i 1 titus i 1 it might be claimed by either of the apostles who bore the name of james or by the brother of our lord or indeed by any believer 1 pet ii 16 it may be noted that this and ch ii 1 are the only passages in which st james names our lord and that the form in which the name appears is identical with that in the epistle from the apostles and elders assembled under st james s presidency in acts xv 26 to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad literally that are in the dispersion the superscription is interesting as shewing that the ten tribes of the kingdom of israel though they had been carried into a more distant exile than judah and benjamin were thought of not as lost and out of sight but as still sharing the faith and hope of their fathers so st paul speaks of the twelve tribed nation as serving god day and night acts xxvi 7 and our lord s promise that his twelve disciples should sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of israel matt xix 28 and the apocalyptic vision of the sealing of the tribes rev vii 5 8 imply the same belief the legend as to the disappearance of the ten tribes which has given rise to so many insane dreams as to their identification with the red indians of america or our the first modern history of st james s palace shedding light on a remarkable building at
