how great is spain how mighty from the rugged mountains of the asturias their base washed by stormy waves and the giddy heights of the pyrenean precipices an eternal barrier between rival peoples to the balmy plains of the south where summer ever reigns a world within itself with a world s variety quien dice españa dice todo and its history is as varied as the land first according to the legend hercules set his pillars or keys the ne plus ultra of land and sea on the rock of calpe gibraltar in europe and on abyla ceuta in africa and that no one should doubt it he placed his temple on the water logged flats half sea half land behind cadiz long remembered by the moors as the district of idols near the city of gades where geryon dwelt from whom hercules lifted that troop of fat oxen which he was destined so long to drive wearily about the earth in memory of all which charles the fifth the great emperor carried hercules pillars on his shield with the proud motto ne plus ultra and the city of cadiz gades still bears them as its arms then tradition past came invaders from the earliest times celts phœnicians and greeks driving the iberians from their rightful lands the carthaginians too crossed from africa along the southern coast and settled at cartagena which still bears their name the romans next appeared victorious under pompey and cæsar spreading over spain but especially powerful at seville cordoba toledo segovia and tarragona where they have left their mark in mighty monuments a race of uncivilised warriors followed from the north so powerful that two roman emperors perished in battle with them of the precise seat of the gothic nation it is hard to speak with certainty it is however known that they came from the extreme north spreading to the borders of the black sea into asia minor in the east and to the south of spain in the west they are mentioned by pliny about sixty years before christ and later by tacitus who twice refers to them as gothones there were so many tribes visigoths astrogoths gepidæ and even vandals that their story is as a tangled web mixed with that of all nations but it is clear that those who concern our present purpose came down into spain from narbonne and toulouse it is strange how soon these savage northmen discarded their wooden idols woden thor and balder the gods of thunder and of the sun so that when constantine the great christianised the world the gothic chief wulfila was ready to become a convert who this wulfila was and how he came to be at constantinople is not clear as bishop of the goths he returned to missionarise his countrymen the dacian tribes in the mighty plains of philippopolis a d 310 314 and made a translation of the bible into gothic even in our own day something of this precious manuscript remains beautifully written in letters of gold on purple vellum at the swedish university of upsala

the best evidence that this book characterizes the spirit of buddhism correctly can be found in the welcome it has received throughout the entire buddhist world it has even been officially introduced in buddhist schools and temples of japan and ceylon the eminent feature of the work is its grasp of the difficult subject and the clear enunciation of the doctrine of the most puzzling problem of tman as taught in buddhism so far as we have examined the question of tman ourselves from the works of the southern canon the view taken by dr paul carus is accurate and we venture to think that it is not opposed to the doctrine of northern buddhism
