as i sit down to write a second devotional book my goal is to provide encouragement for living the kingdom of god in the here and now i would also like to challenge us stretch us and comfort us i say us because i am a fellow traveler on this journey of faith i have had many of the same struggles disappointments and failures and also have been refreshed by the exuberant grace of our god jesus said the way to life is narrow he did not mean exclusive or difficult he meant that people don t want to be students for those willing to make the effort they will discover his yoke is easy and his burden is light those who think it hard have looked at jesus from too far a distance i love this quote from g k chesterton christianity has not been tried and found wanting it has been found difficult and not tried my thoughts were when i discovered that i had add well my life is mostly over and now i find out that i have add what could i have accomplished had i known about it when i was younger and could have possibly made the right adjustments to succeed where instead i merely stumbled a question yet that question like any other question is something you don t sit on because if you do you really don t want the answer you want to wallow in self pity but if one pursues it even when some aspects of it appear to be at least in our lifetime unanswerable one pursues their life answers will come and sometimes they will come in unexpected ways that words can't quite express yet our hearts can feel those answers and they can take you to places that you never thought you could ever go to if your heart is touched and if you keep on following forward you'll indeed find yourself in places that you would have never thought of but please don't stop that's the purpose of this book a devotional for the depressed and the insane we get stuck I believe that a great deal of humanity is included just give up we settle but what if we're not meant to settle to give up then maybe we were meant to live to really live to our dying breath and maybe even beyond that who knows if we're not supposed to surrender ourselves to the well that's just the way it is mentality then for sure we stand a chance of finding ourselves depressed and maybe a little insane if we do surrender this book is for whoever picks it up this book is for whoever is struggling each day a moment to read and then answer a question or two just for yourself write them down in the notes thoughts part if you want to it will become your book if you pursue those questions and those answers it will become a chronicle of your journey your adventure no longer a devotional but your story the devotional will become a story about you this book examines the wide range of multilingual devotional performances engaged in by young muslims in the uk today it evaluates the contemporary mosque school in the uk and contrasts this with practices from the past and with prevailing discourses both political and other which suggest that such institutions are problematic it also challenges the highly politicised and mediatised discourse which suggests that linguistic diversity presents a threat to the privileging of monolingualism in the uk finally it argues for the usefulness of the term ultralingual when analysing the multilingual devotional language performances of these young people
