The Rise of the Early Christian Intellectual

2020-05-05

the study of the growth of early christian intellectual life is of perennial interest to scholars this volume advances discussion by exploring ways in which christian writers in the second century did not so much draw on hellenistic intellectual traditions and models as they were inevitably embedded in those traditions the volume contains papers from a seminar in rome in 2016 that explored the nature and activity of the emergent christian intellectual between the late first century and the early third century the papers show that hellenistic scholarly cultures were the milieu within which christian modes of thinking developed at the same time the essays show how christian thinkers made use of the cultures of which they were part in distinctive ways adapting existing traditions because of christian beliefs and needs the figures studied include papias from the early part of the second century tatian irenaeus and clement of alexandria from the later second century one paper on eusebius of caesarea explores the christian adaptation of hellenistic scholarly methods of commentary christian figures are studied in the light of debates within

The Alpha

i have been on a long spiritual journey studying christian theology overtime it became abundantly obvious to me that if the christian faith is really true it is not being given the weight suggested by what we profess to believe there are aspects of what we profess to believe that are very comforting the love of god for one there are aspects of christianity that are hard to understand hell as another example these two aspects of our faith coexist in the immutable nature of god neither of these aspects of god s nature can ever be diminished or compromised since god cannot compromise his intrinsic nature these truths give rise to our need for a all sufficient savior this book is exploring the wonders of god s salvific work to bring sinners into a right standing with our heavenly father
