I Love My Dog 1999 the buoy is a psycho-dramatic novel with spiritual overtones written to take the reader out of his day-to-day existence into a dimension that lies between life and death this is a place of quasi-existence where one is forced to observe but inhibited from interfering in the affairs of those into whose company he is thrust there he must watch helplessly while disastrous events unfold through an encounter with a castaway fisherman's buoy with bizarre properties this buoy traps a scientist in a strange psycho-physical vortex that sweeps him out to sea there the scientist relives the events that brought the buoy to the shores of america in the first place the drama unfolds over a hundred years and involves two ships a nineteenth-century sailing vessel and a modern sophisticated diesel-powered vessel engaged in oceanographic research

My Dog Rinty 1970 maybe it's no accident that dog is god spelled backwards dogs offer unconditional love usually much more than we deserve and all we have to do is accept the gift dogs don't care if we're rich, smart, or popular; they care only that we get through this life reassured that love is out there for each of us. If you've ever owned a dog, you'll relate to these true stories contributed by real-life dog owners, each recounting a special canine bond in tough and troubled times. It's often the family dog that holds our lives together.

Me and My Dog 2016: a big, red, happy, muddy, smart, bouncy, slobbery, sneaky, stinky dog is praised by his proud owner.
Three Dogs and a Dancer 2014-10-11: Joan experienced the loss of her closest family members and beloved pets in a very short time. She was lost in darkness and depression. Joan wanted to end her darkness and loss of direction. Rio, a gift to her, provided her with unconditional love and enticed her back into the bright daylight of life.

My Dog Sam 2012-12-12: Dogs and I is a collection of the author's anecdotes, musings, and recollections related to dogs, specifically breeding and showing them, full of interesting, useful information interspersed with personal stories and other notes. This volume will be of interest to breeders and owners alike and it would make for a fantastic addition to collections of allied literature. Contents include: the eternal ego, barking dogs do not bite, fox hounds and cur dogs, the huntsman and the greyhound trainer, a spacious revenge, the genuine cynophile, imposters, the obsession of dog showing, dogs do not bite judges, the bulldog bumble, an action in law, the disappearing lady, etc. Many vintage books such as this are increasingly scarce and expensive. It is with this in mind that we are republishing this volume now in an affordable, modern, high-quality edition, complete with a specially commissioned new introduction on dog breeding.
